MISSISSAUGA, ON - June 24, 2025 -

Pop49 Inc., a leader in the experiential marketing industry, is transforming the way brands interact with their customers through innovative, custom-built marketing products and displays. Specialising in high-impact, interactive displays, Pop49 crafts unique experiences that elevate brands and create lasting impressions. Whether for trade shows, retail environments, or promotional events, Pop49?s expertise in custom marketing solutions sets them apart as the go-to partner for businesses looking to captivate their audiences.

With a deep commitment to creativity and precision, Pop49 combines cutting-edge technology and state-of-the-art manufacturing techniques to create custom displays, marketing games, pop-up spaces, and more. These innovative products are designed to engage and entertain, helping brands connect with consumers in meaningful ways. By seamlessly blending design, manufacturing, and logistics, Pop49 ensures that every project is executed flawlessly, delivering results that exceed expectations.

The company?s wide range of experiential marketing products includes point-of-purchase displays, trade show booths, promo tables, and custom games. These products are not just visually striking but are built to interact with audiences, creating memorable experiences that draw people in and make them part of the brand story. For example, Pop49?s custom marketing games are designed to entertain while educating consumers about a brand, providing a fun and immersive experience that strengthens consumer loyalty.

?Experiential marketing is about more than just showing a product,? says Ricky Pacheco, founder of Pop49. ?It?s about creating an experience that resonates with the audience long after they?ve left the event. We believe in building emotional connections through our custom solutions, whether that?s with interactive games, visually impactful displays, or personalized promotional products. Our goal is always to leave a lasting impression that fuels consumer interest and engagement.?

One of Pop49?s standout features is its ability to handle projects of any scale. From small, localised events to large, international campaigns, Pop49 offers flexible production capabilities that allow them to adapt to any client?s needs. Whether producing limited-run, bespoke items or large quantities for a national campaign, the company ensures that every product meets the highest quality standards. Their advanced printing technology and fabrication methods, including CNC machining, laser cutting, and 3D printing, give them the ability to produce complex, high-precision marketing products that make a significant impact in any environment.

?Our team is passionate about pushing the boundaries of what?s possible in experiential marketing,? Ricky says. ?We use the latest technology to create visually stunning and functional marketing products that not only catch the eye but also foster deeper connections between brands and their audiences. We want every project to be something extraordinary that our clients can be proud of.?

Pop49's team of experts works closely with clients to understand their goals and challenges, tailoring solutions that align perfectly with the brand?s identity and messaging. From the initial concept and design stage to the final product delivery, Pop49 ensures a seamless process that takes the stress out of marketing campaigns. Their approach allows businesses to focus on their core objectives, while Pop49 handles the creation and execution of innovative marketing solutions.

The company?s broad array of capabilities also includes large format printing, custom manufacturing, and graphic design, enabling them to provide end-to-end services that take a brand from concept to reality. Whether a business needs large-scale signage for an event, custom displays for a retail environment, or interactive promotional items for a product launch, Pop49?s diverse range of services can accommodate any need.

As the demand for personalised, engaging marketing experiences continues to grow, Pop49 is poised to remain at the forefront of the industry. With their innovative solutions, cutting-edge technology, and dedication to delivering impactful results, Pop49 is helping brands across industries transform how they connect with consumers. Through every custom display and interactive marketing solution, Pop49 ensures that brands are not just seen but experienced.
