Lake Highlands School of Music Invites Young Musicians to Join Performance Program and Summer Camps

May 22, 2025

May 22, 2025 -
Lake Highlands School of Music (LHSM), located in the heart of East Dallas, is proud to announce open enrollment for its signature Performance Program, an exciting series of summer music camps, and an affordable $30 Intro Promo trial lesson. As the area?s largest and most vibrant independent music school, LHSM is committed to helping students of all ages discover the joy of music in a supportive and dynamic environment.

LHSM?s Performance Program is designed for students ages 10 to 18 who are ready to take their musical skills to the next level. Participants are placed into one of several skill-based student bands?ranging from Intro to Intermediate and Advanced?and rehearse weekly under the direction of professional musician-educators. These rehearsals focus on learning to play in a group, developing musicianship, and exploring genres like rock, pop, blues, funk, and R&B.

Each band prepares for live performances throughout the semester, giving students valuable stage experience. Intermediate and Advanced bands also record a professional live video as part of the LHSM

Showcase Series, offering students a lasting memento and a real-world introduction to performing arts production at prime Dallas music venues. Enrollment is now open for Summer / Fall 2025, and auditions are required for band placement. The Performance Program is the culmination of what LHSM offers and is a way for ambitious young musicians to experience a completely modern approach to music and get professional training on what it truly means to be a successful, working musician in the industry. To help new students get started, LHSM offers a $30 Intro Promo lesson?an affordable, one-on-one trial lesson with no long-term commitment required. Whether you're a complete beginner or looking to get back into music, this is the perfect way to explore your interest and meet one of LHSM?s professional instructors. Students can choose from a wide range of instruments and programs including piano, guitar, bass, drums, voice/singing, ukulele, violin, and music production. This offer is available for students of all skill levels ages 5 and above and is a great introduction to the high-quality instruction and welcoming environment that LHSM is known for.

In addition to its year-round programming, LHSM is offering a variety of half-day summer camps for children ages 6 to 11. These themed camps combine musical education with fun, age-appropriate activities and games. Upcoming sessions include Swiftie Camp from June 16?20, featuring a week of singing, karaoke, trivia, and dress-up days inspired by the music of Taylor Swift; Classic Rock Camp from June 23?27, where campers learn classic hits and get introduced to rock instruments; Chess Camp from July 7?11, offering a non-musical option for strategic thinkers who enjoy competitive fun; and Musical Theater Camp from July 14?18, where students learn songs and scenes from Broadway favorites and perform in a final showcase.

Founded in 2017 by professional guitarist and educator Zach Galindo, Lake Highlands School of Music now serves over 300 students with a faculty of more than 25 experienced instructors. The school offers private lessons, band programs, performance opportunities, and a community-focused approach that encourages creativity and confidence through music. LHSM is committed to empowering students of all ages through fun, structured, and high-quality music education.
