May 27, 2025

LAS VEGAS, NV - May 27, 2025 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Kung Fu Thai & Chinese Restaurant, a well-known spot in Las Vegas, is excited to share its special focus on the Orange Shrimp, a dish that has become one of its highlights. This popular dish is prepared using jumbo shrimp that are freshly peeled, lightly battered, and then fried in pure vegetable oil. They're topped with a house-made orange sauce that perfectly blends with pineapple chunks, white onions, carrot slices, and fresh orange pieces. Served alongside premium Jasmine Rice, the dish promises a unique flavor experience.

Alan Wong, representing Kung Fu Thai & Chinese Restaurant, shared their dedication to quality and tradition, noting, "Our Orange Shrimp dish represents the fusion of authentic Chinese and Thai flavors. We aim to provide our guests with a memorable dining experience that transcends the usual expectations."

Situated in the lively city of Las Vegas, the restaurant appeals to a wide crowd by offering dine-in, take-out, and delivery services. It has established itself as a culinary hotspot, attracting both locals and tourists. Their easy-to-navigate website showcases a full menu and a simple ordering system, allowing customers to access and enjoy their dishes without hassle. In tune with global customers, they accept various currencies such as Euros, Pounds, and even Bitcoin.

Kung Fu Thai Chinese Restaurant is noted for its diverse menu, which includes appetizers like spring rolls and crab rangoon, alongside main courses that marry Chinese and Thai inspirations. As a highlight of their menu, the popularity of the Orange Shrimp dish has inspired its central role.
