Buffalo Ophthalmology Welcomes Two New Doctors

May 27, 2025

Orchard Park, New York - May 27, 2025 -
BUFFALO, N.Y. ? Buffalo Ophthalmology is expanding its practice with the addition of two new doctors: Dr. Kelley Bohm and Dr. Taylor Fronczak. This expansion of our personnel underscores Buffalo Ophthalmology's ongoing commitment to providing the highest quality eye care to the Western New York community.

"At Buffalo Ophthalmology, we are thrilled to welcome two exceptional doctors to our team,? Dr. Deepan Selvadurai of Buffalo Ophthalmology stated. ?Their expertise, passion for patient care, and commitment to advancing eye health will undoubtedly enhance our ability to provide the highest quality care to our community. We look forward to the positive impact they will make in our practice and the lives of our patients."

Dr. Kelley Bohm brings expertise as a Cornea Specialist and Cataract Surgeon to Buffalo Ophthalmology. A board-certified ophthalmologist, Dr. Bohm is a member of the American Academy of Ophthalmology, the American Society for Cataract and Refractive Surgeons, and the Illinois Society of Eye Physicians and Surgeons. She received her medical degree from Weill Cornell Medical College before completing an internship at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center, followed by an ophthalmology residency at the Illinois Eye and Ear Infirmary at the University of Illinois at Chicago.

Dr. Bohm furthered her expertise with a cornea clinical research fellowship at Weill Cornell and a cornea and external disease fellowship at the Wilmer Eye Institute at Johns Hopkins University, where she worked on the development of cutting-edge surgical techniques. Her work has won awards such as the ASCRS Foundation Resident Excellence Award and the Edward Norton Prize in Ophthalmology. With a strong foundation in clinical research and patient care, Dr. Bohm is dedicated to advancing eye health and improving outcomes for patients with complex corneal conditions.

Dr. Taylor Fronczak earned her Bachelor of Science in Health Sciences from Daemen University, and graduated cum laude with a Doctor of Optometry degree from the Inter American University of Puerto Rico. During her doctoral studies, she served as a tutor in biomedical sciences, ocular disease, and anatomy, reflecting her commitment to clinical excellence and education.

Dr. Fronczak completed a residency in ocular disease and primary eye care at the Erie Veterans Administration Medical Center in Erie, Pa., where she gained extensive experience in managing conditions such as glaucoma, dry eye disease, and diabetic retinopathy. Her clinical training also includes externships at the Veterans Affairs Hospital in Batavia, N.Y., the Hollywood Eye Institute in Cooper City, Fla., and COSSMA clinics in Puerto Rico. Dr. Fronczak is dedicated to delivering comprehensive, patient-centered care and is fluent in both English and Spanish.

The addition of Dr. Bohm and Dr. Fronczak highlights Buffalo Ophthalmology's continued growth and dedication to the community's eye care needs. The practice is committed to providing the highest quality eye care, and these new doctors will play a vital role in furthering that mission. Their respective specialties and credentials are valuable assets to the practice and the patients it serves.
