

Northco Fire Celebrates 8 Years of Excellence in Northern Colorado

June 02, 2025

Fort Collins, Colorado - June 02, 2025 -
Northco Fire is celebrating eight years of accreditation with the Better Business Bureau, which highlights its reliability as a fireplace service provider in Northern Colorado. Since the company's start in 2012, it has consistently provided quality service, gaining significant respect in both Larimer and Weld County. The team at Northco Fire specializes in fireplace maintenance, gas fireplace repair, and the upkeep of outdoor fire pits.

Their main goal is to help extend the life and ensure the safety of fireplaces, whether they are traditional wood-burning ones or modern gas models. Northco Fire focuses heavily on customer satisfaction and offers personalized advice on maintenance needs. They make sure clients understand how to take care of their specific fireplace designs, which helps keep these features a reliable source of warmth and comfort year-round.

Apart from dealing with fireplaces, Northco Fire also dedicates effort to servicing outdoor fire pits. Their team knows a lot about various fire pit models and assists clients in selecting and maintaining these outdoor features to fit their needs. This becomes especially important as the cold months approach in Northern Colorado, when a well-maintained outdoor fire pit can make gatherings more enjoyable.

Brian Kelly, a respected technician at Northco Fire, explained, "Our goal is to provide our clients with a reliable fireplace service that enhances their enjoyment of their home. Whether it's a cozy evening by the fireplace or an outdoor gathering around the fire pit, we want our clients to have confidence in the safety and function of their fire features."

Northco Fire has a perfect 5.0 rating on Yelp, solidifying its presence in the region. Many clients commend the company for its expertise and dependability, often specifically mentioning technicians like Brian, who are known for their in-depth understanding of fireplace technology and prompt service. Another technician, Joel, has also received praise for swiftly diagnosing issues and cleaning fireplaces thoroughly, ensuring they are safe and efficient.

By arranging regular maintenance visits with Northco Fire, homeowners can make sure their fireplaces and outdoor fire pits are ready and safe for the chillier seasons. The company's strong commitment to high standards and happy customers not only makes them reliable but also helps in building long-lasting relationships with those they serve.

For their comprehensive services including fireplace maintenance and service, gas fireplace service, and outdoor fire pit service, Northco Fire has become a trusted name in Northern Colorado. Those seeking to understand more about the company can visit Northco Fire's website.

"As we celebrate our eighth year with the Better Business Bureau, we're proud of the trust and credibility we've built in our community," said Brian Kelly. "This milestone is a testament to our team's commitment to service excellence and our dedication to meeting the needs of our customers."

People interested in learning more about what Northco Fire offers or wanting to set up a service appointment can reach the business during their operating hours from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM on weekdays. The company is closed on weekends. They can be contacted at (970) 412-4516 or found online on platforms like Yelp. There, visitors can browse through reviews and explore their service options.

In summary, Northco Fire's ongoing commitment to high-quality service and customer satisfaction makes it a standout in fireplace solutions in Northern Colorado. By focusing on trust and reliability, the company maintains its strong reputation in the community.
