An SEO services provider in Houston, TX, has announced the availability of SEO services targeted specifically at lawyers. These services are designed to make sure law firms are able to get their name out there and attract more clients. The company encourages lawyers to contact them as soon as possible for further information.

Garrett Laidler from SEO Houston Pros says: "We offer SEO services specifically for the legal niche. We feel it is important to focus on a niche, because the world of SEO is now so complex that it is impossible to offer generic services. We feel companies that do offer SEO services for all types of companies are, essentially, selling their clients short."

To demonstrate their own skills, the company has also applied its tools to itself. One of the ways they have done this is by launching their own Facebook page. In a very short period of time, they were able to attract over 200 followers to this page, many of which became clients. While social media marketing is just a small element of the work that the company does, it does demonstrate how quickly they can get exposure for their clients.

The Facebook page is also extensively used by clients to leave their reviews. "At first I was skeptical about using an SEO company. I just wasn't sure if it was for me," says Gerry J., a lawyer in Houston. "Lucky for me, SEO Houston Pros proved to me that they can run a successful campaign. I didn't understand how amazing it is to be ranked on Google for the right keywords until I was there, and the phone calls started flooding in. Thank you."

The company is pleased to hear that law firms across the Houston area are experiencing the benefits of their work. They have also launched their LinkedIn profile, on which they have listed the individual skills of each member of staff that they have. This is done in an effort to introduce people on a more personal level and to highlight individual expertise and how this can benefit law firms with their own SEO campaigns.
