Chico, CA Criminal Defense attorney Brandon T. Williams graduated from the University of California, Berkeley (Cal), where he studied Political Economy of Industrial Societies. He was also a member of the track and field team while at Cal. This taught him discipline, preparation, a hard work ethic and how to balance time. After Cal, he attended the law school of Thomas M. Cooley; graduating with honors (Cum Laude). While in law school, he had the opportunity to Clerk for the Honorable Judge Amy Krause in the 54A-District Court in Lansing Michigan. As a law clerk, Mr. Williams was able to experience law from a judicial standpoint. He discussed cases with the judge, wrote bench memos, and provided legal research for the

At the district attorney office, he first chaired traffic court trials, negotiated settlements, argued motions to suppress, serna motions, demurrer motions and motions to withdraw plea. He participated in jury trials and provided extensive input in trial strategy and pretrial negotiations for the misdemeanor department.
