February 05, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Auckland, New Zealand - One of SuperiorMaker's a top selling product on Amazon the door stop, has recently hit a milestone of receiving 200 reviews on Amazon.com, with 60% of the reviews being 4 stars or higher.

When a shopper makes a purchase on the popular shopping portal Amazon, the shopper is then contacted via email on behalf of the seller and is solicited for an honest review. These reviews are censused to show whether or not the product is good purchase. This review system is what sets Amazon apart from other shopping portals.

The Amazon review system offers two types of reviews. These are product reviews and seller reviews. Amazon requests both types of reviews after each purchase.

The Amazon review system is based on a 5-star review rating. With 5-stars reserved and given to the products that are flawless in the eyes of the shoppers. The door stops from SuperiorMaker have been getting a plethora of great reviews. Gradually climbing up the review rating ranks.

?These door stops are perfect in every way. These stops are lightweight yet very durable and solid. They don't mark the doors, aren't an imposing object, and are easily slipped under any type of door. I can't find a fault with them. And the e-books? - a definite bonus,? said Sally Grace in a 5-star product review.

Diana, a verified Amazon customer said that the door stops are great for lightweight doors or heavy duty ones. ?These work great. You put your door and put against it and they you don't have to worry about it scooting or closing a door. That will be nice when weather is nice and you want to leave it open to get some fresh air in your house. It came with 4 stoppers. Which will be nice to use on different styles of doors. I tested this for quality and am basing my review on my experience. Heavy weight doors to lighter weight ones. I have not had a problem with using these. It is nice to have a door stay open and not worry about little fingers getting pinched,? said Diana in a 5-star review.

?We are absolutely elated at hitting the milestone of 200 reviews, we are actually at 237 now! Reading all the reviews on our door stops also lets us know what our customers like and how we could be better at serving them. The door stops are ideal for keeping doors open for pets, to pin back a door in a drafty hallway or even just for holding the door while you're bringing in the shopping,? said a representative from SuperiorMaker.

The door stops from SuperiorMaker are currently available on Amazon, with each purchase comes with two free homecare eBooks. Each purchase is also fully backed by a 100 percent money back guarantee.
