June 11, 2025 -

Old Dominion Dumpsters, a locally owned dumpster rental service, offers affordable and reliable roll off dumpster rental solutions throughout the Greater Richmond Region. Serving residential, commercial, and industrial clients across Richmond, Chesterfield, Midlothian, Mechanicsville, Glen Allen, Petersburg, and surrounding Virginia communities, the company specializes in convenient waste disposal for a wide range of project needs.

Dedicated to simplifying the waste management process, Old Dominion Dumpsters provides competitively priced 10-yard and 20-yard roll off dumpsters for home renovations, cleanouts, construction debris, landscaping waste, roofing projects, and more. By offering full-service support, prompt delivery, and flexible scheduling, the business ensures that customers across Central Virginia can access efficient and dependable disposal services.

Each roll off container is designed to be driveway-safe and easy to load, making them ideal for both homeowners and contractors. The 10-yard dumpster, typically used for small renovation jobs and household cleanouts, holds approximately three truckloads of waste. Meanwhile, the 20-yard container offers double the capacity, catering to medium-sized construction projects, estate cleanouts, and commercial renovations. These container sizes cover the most common disposal needs without overburdening residential driveways or job sites.

Operating out of the Richmond area, Old Dominion Dumpsters supports projects across both urban and suburban communities. In Chesterfield and Midlothian, the company has become a trusted partner for contractors performing roof replacements and remodeling work. In Mechanicsville and Glen Allen, the company often assists residents tackling garage cleanouts or preparing for moves. In Petersburg, rental units are frequently utilized for property upgrades and commercial renovation efforts.

The business emphasizes customer convenience, offering online booking through its website and responsive phone-based service for personalized scheduling. Its roll off dumpsters are available for both short-term and extended rentals, allowing users the flexibility to manage timelines without pressure. With a clear pricing model and no hidden fees, customers in the Richmond metro area receive transparent service that aligns with local expectations and job requirements.

Old Dominion Dumpsters is committed to responsible waste handling practices. All waste is disposed of in accordance with Virginia environmental regulations, and the company routinely separates and directs materials to appropriate recycling or disposal facilities. Whether handling residential debris or commercial waste, the company prioritizes eco-conscious disposal methods wherever possible.

With a strong presence across Central Virginia, Old Dominion Dumpsters has built a reputation for reliability and affordability. Customers throughout the region recognize the business as a dependable source for roll off dumpster rentals that arrive on time, fit within budgets, and support project success from start to finish. Whether the need involves clearing out a home in Chesterfield, removing yard debris in Glen Allen, or renovating a retail space in Richmond, Old Dominion Dumpsters offers tailored rental solutions backed by local expertise.

The company also provides guidance to help customers select the right dumpster size for their needs. Its knowledgeable team helps first-time renters and experienced contractors alike navigate size options, weight limits, prohibited items, and placement logistics to ensure a hassle-free rental experience.

With the convenience of direct booking through the website, Old Dominion Dumpsters continues to support communities across Richmond and beyond. The team stands ready to assist homeowners, contractors, property managers, and business owners looking for efficient and affordable dumpster rental Richmond VA options.

For those in need of dependable dumpster rental services in Richmond, Chesterfield, Midlothian, Mechanicsville, Glen Allen, and Petersburg, Old Dominion Dumpsters remains a go-to provider committed to professionalism and environmental responsibility.
