ALPHARETTA, GA - June 19, 2025 -
Horst Shewmaker, LLC, a respected personal injury law firm located in Alpharetta GA, secured a favorable settlement for a client involved in a rear-end accident. This achievement shows the firm's dedication to helping car accident victims get justice. Back in the fall of 2024, their client was hit while stopped at a yield sign on an Alpharetta highway. The other driver was ticketed for following too closely and for driving with a suspended license.

After the collision, the client suffered from headaches, neck pain, and lower back pain, which were later found to be linked to disc herniations. She pursued treatment with pain medication and conservative chiropractic care, which improved her condition. The skilled car accident lawyers at Horst Shewmaker worked with the insurance company ahead of any court filings. They reached a settlement that awarded the client $18,850 for her injuries and damages.

Reflecting on the case, Attorney Zachary S. Shewmaker said, "We are pleased with the settlement achieved for our client. At Horst Shewmaker, we understand the overwhelming challenges accident victims face, and our goal is to ensure they receive compensation reflecting both their physical and emotional suffering."
