February 09, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

LimoRSVP, a business based in Deerfield, IL, has long been known for offering a high quality limo service in Chicago based on traditional values. Today they are proud to announce that they now offer what they like to call 'the best of both worlds'. This means that their traditional values, such as friendly, polite and professional chauffeurs, remain firmly in place. However, in addition to that, they are now providing cutting edge technology, as evidenced in their reservation, confirmation and billing system, and the newest late-model vehicles to their fleet.

Bud Hicks from LimoRSVP says: "Our customers have come to count on our reliability, old world service and attention to detail and we're committed to continue delivering that kind of service. At the same time, we wanted to make it easier for anyone, so we invested in an advanced reservation system and upgraded our fleet of vehicles to give customers a better overall experience."

For this Chicago limousine service, the focus is on appreciating the patronage of each customer and respecting their time. These traditional values are what first got them noticed in the competitive world of limousine services in Chicago. Now, they've combined it with the latest software for simplified bookings, confirmations, and statements. Add in those sleek, late model limousines from Mercedes-Benz, Lincoln, and Cadillac and others and you get quality, personal service combined with cutting-edge technology.

Other companies are known to make similar claims about reliability, but often fail to actually back them up. Too often, these businesses use old vehicles, do not train their drivers, and don't focus on ease of use for their websites and software. LimoRSVP is quickly building up a reputation as being the best because they actually deliver what they promise.

"Thank you so much LimoRSVP for the awesome communication in setting up for my son's 16th birthday event & for providing very reliable & accommodating service for these teenagers," says Jenny B. "They had a great time in the limo ride to their event downtown & enjoyed their complimentary soda drinks. The driver was wonderful to speak to when he pulled up. We will surely be doing business with you again."
