Denver Downton Castle Hosts Downton Abbey Finale

February 10, 2016

February 10, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

In the Denver Downton Castle, known as the Castle Marne Bed & Breakfast Inn, signature events during February will culminate with a weekend of food, luxury, events and viewing of the last episode of the PBS television series, 'Downton Abbey'. Unlike anything else where the general public can attend functions like this, the bed and breakfast inn at the Denver Downton Castle will provide 10 people with a weekend of relaxation, food service and enjoyment usually only enjoyed by those who are in the upper echelon. The event, which is called 'Experience A Weekend Like Royals' is already gathering a lot of attention.

Louie Feher-Peiker from Castle Marne Bed & Breakfast Inn says: "Downton Abbey ending is truly the end of an era. We want to make sure we do this fantastic show honor by giving ten fans the opportunity to feel as if they are actually part of the series. We are happy to see that many people are already interested in it."

Additional tea gatherings and private cocktail parties will be held before the other airings of the final episode of Downton Abbey. Not to be missed and not to be repeated, these events will end with a black-tie 9 course mirrored service dinner presentation that is in keeping with the reputation of the Downton Abbey family.

Denver Bed and Breakfast is a Castle On The Hill. It has long been a very popular hotel, mainly due to its original architecture and decorations. "My boyfriend surprised me with a birthday staycation here. We loved the service and the bed and breakfast. The feeling of the place is wonderful. I really enjoyed having a private hot tub on the balcony. Being here feels like staying with a family member in an awesome house."

The hotel has also been named one of the most romantic castle hotels in the U.S. list. It prides itself on its original features and art works, and its impeccable service. This and more are what they will also offer the ten lucky guests who will be able to enjoy a truly royal weekend.
