PowerUp - Leading Electrical Contractor Expands Services with Eco-Friendly Solutions in Ely

July 22, 2025

Peterborough, CAM - July 22, 2025 -
PowerUp Electrical Solutions Ltd, a family-operated business based in the UK, has announced its plans to grow its services in the Ely area of Cambridgeshire. Known for its dependable electrical system installations, upkeep, and repairs, the company aims to serve residential houses and commercial enterprises in the region even better.

This expansion underscores PowerUp Electrical Solutions Ltd's dedication to offering a full range of electrical services. The company focuses on ensuring safety in homes by adhering to British standards, while also helping businesses meet UK electrical regulations. The PowerUp Electrical Contractor Ely is keen on improving the community's access to high-quality electrical solutions and provides steadfast service to landlords and real estate agents.

The company's CEO, Jay Alibhai, shares his excitement about the expansion by stating, "Our decision to broaden our presence in Ely is driven by our desire to serve the community better. We believe our expert team can bring considerable value to both homes and businesses here by ensuring their electrical systems are safe and efficient. We are eager to extend the same quality service and personal touch that has defined our operations in Peterborough."

As part of this growth, PowerUp is rolling out eco-friendly and energy-saving solutions in Ely, showing its commitment to sustainable practices. These initiatives aim to help customers reduce their carbon footprints while delivering sound and responsible electrical services. Offering environmentally conscious options aligns with PowerUp's long-term goals for advancing sustainable practices within its service areas.

Beyond expanding its offerings, PowerUp Electrical Solutions Ltd provides 24/7 emergency electrical services, giving customers the peace of mind that help is available whenever needed. The company's ability to respond swiftly is crucial in handling unexpected electrical problems, reducing disruptions for both home and business owners. Their team of certified electricians is ready to address emergencies efficiently, keeping downtime to a minimum.

The expansion also emphasizes bolstering services for landlords and estate agents. With extensive experience and competitive prices, PowerUp is prepared to service properties, ensuring they are well-maintained with regular check-ups and essential upgrades. This focus on quality and reliability highlights the company's commitment to nurturing enduring relationships with its clients.

Jay Alibhai further mentioned, "In expanding our operations, we are not just increasing our reach but enhancing our capacity to respond to the unique needs of each client. Our ambition is to become an integral part of the Ely community, known not just for our technical expertise but for the integrity and customer focus that has been the hallmark of our company."

PowerUp Electrical Solutions Ltd remains steadfast in delivering professional excellence alongside a personalized approach to customer service. By combining these key principles with forward-thinking solutions, the company improves its capability to cater to the diverse electrical needs of clients in Ely and nearby areas.
