

Boat Show In Miami Featuring Raritan Marine Toilets Moved To A New Location

February 10, 2016

February 10, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Raritan Engineering, a business in Millville, NJ, has announced a new location for the 2016 Progressive Insurance Miami International Boat Show, where they will be featuring their marine toilets. It has been moved from the Miami Beach Convention Center to the Miami Marine Stadium Park & Basin. The event will take place during President's Day Weekend, from February 11 to 15, 2016. More details about the company and the boat show are available at <http://raritaneng.com/up-coming-events/>.

Kim Shinn from Raritan Engineering says: "The design of Raritan marine toilets/heads is based on the needs and requirements of our clients, boaters and sailors. All Raritan toilets for boats have low water consumption, are easy to operate, maintain, clean and provide years of service, even in the most extreme environments. All of our electric toilets also have low power consumption and low noise levels. We're very excited to present them at the upcoming boat show."

The event will take place at 3501 Rickenbacker Causeway, Miami, FL 33149, which is located on Virginia Key. This is just minutes away from downtown Miami.

Raritan Engineering has also launched their Facebook page. This is available at <https://www.facebook.com/Raritan-Engineering-Company-400573860119287>, and people are encouraged to like the page to be kept up to date with industry news and details about various events. Additionally, this page gives people the opportunity to ask questions and otherwise join in industry relevant conversations.

In relation to the marine toilets that will be featured at the upcoming show, the company has released significant information on helping people choose such toilets. This information can be found at <http://raritaneng.com/catagory-pages/choosing-your-marine-toilet/>. "Raritan toilets, as well as all of our products come with the legendary Raritan customer service support," adds Kim Shinn. "Customers can call Raritan customer service for entire life of product and speak to technical support personal free of charge. The average wait time for speaking to a "live person" is less than a minute. All parts for Raritan toilets are stocked in the US and available for same day shipping if necessary, but most orders for Raritan toilets as well as our other products are shipped within 24 hours after receipt of order."
