A photo booth rental company in Lancaster, PA, is celebrating its fourth year in business. They have also expanded their rental area to be able to serve a wider range of customers. Their photo booth rental services have been very well received by their many clients.

Ben Reeder from Big Party Photo Booths says: "We have had a wild ride over the past four years. Going from one party to the next, being involved in people's celebrations, and helping them come up with lasting memories of their parties have been absolutely fantastic. Thanks to the continued support of our loyal customers, we are really happy to announce that we are now able to offer our services across a wider geographical area as well."

The popular party photo booth is now available across a wider part of Pennsylvania. Locations include Harrisburg, York, Lancaster, Reading and State College. The booths are available for any type of celebration, although they have been found to be most popular for weddings, Bar and Bat Mitzvahs, sweet sixteens, birthday parties, graduation parties, anniversary parties, reunions, and corporate parties and events. The company feels that any type of celebration can be made extra special with a photo booth and they look forward to attending many more.

Those who have used the service over the past four years have been overwhelmingly positive about their experiences. "Ben is the best," says Roger C. "Great to work with. High quality pics. Awesome."

Each one of the photo booths for parties can hold up to ten people at a time. The company also provides props as part of the experience, so that the pictures can become even more special. It takes just 20 seconds for a photo print to be produced, which means that those attending the party won't have to queue or wait for a long time before getting their picture.

The company prides itself on offering endless possibilities. They can include props that follow a certain theme, or just have generic props that anyone can enjoy. They look forward to many more years in business, attending parties and events across the state of Pennsylvania, particularly now that they have a wider geographical reach.
