Dr. Mark Mandell-Brown Named #1 Top Plastic Surgeon in Cincinnati by London Daily News

July 17, 2025

CINCINNATI, OH - July 17, 2025 -

CINCINNATI, OH?Dr. Mark Mandell-Brown, director of the Mandell-Brown Plastic Surgery Center, has been named the #1 Top Plastic Surgeon in Cincinnati by London Daily News, which placed him first in its newly published ?Top 10 Plastic Surgeons in Cincinnati? list. The international recognition joins a growing roster of local and national accolades for Dr. Mandell-Brown and affirms his practice?s longstanding commitment to pairing world-class surgical expertise with an unwavering focus on patient experience.

?I am honored to be recognized at the top of this list,? said Dr. Mandell-Brown. ?Every award is really a reflection of our patients? trust and my team?s dedication to helping individuals look better, not different. Our Natural Look? plastic surgery philosophy is the heart of our practice for surgical and non-surgical procedures, and we greatly appreciate the opportunity to provide these services to our wonderful community.?

Dr. Mandell-Brown is one of only a few surgeons nationwide to hold triple board certification in Facial Plastic Surgery, Cosmetic Surgery, and Head & Neck Surgery. Over more than three decades in practice, he has refined techniques for facial, breast, and body procedures?ranging from deep-plane facelift and rhinoplasty to tummy tuck and mommy makeover?while maintaining a reputation for elegant, refined results.

This latest honor by London Daily News follows a series of recent regional wins. In Cincinnati CityBeat?s 2025 ?Best of Cincinnati? readers? poll, Mandell-Brown Plastic Surgery Center earned #1 rankings for Best Plastic Surgery, Best MediSpa, and Best Skin Care Service for the fifth consecutive year. The practice also took home Cincinnati Magazine?s perennial ?Top Doc? designation in Plastic Surgery and the Cincinnati Enquirer?s 2024 Community Choice Award for Best Cosmetic/Plastic Surgeon and Best Spa.

?These local awards are especially meaningful because they come directly from our community,? Dr. Mandell-Brown noted. ?Being recognized for both surgical and medspa services tells me that patients appreciate having comprehensive care under one roof, delivered with the same safety standards they would expect in a hospital setting, and we will continue to put our patients? needs and well-being first.?

Safety is a visible priority at the Mandell-Brown Plastic Surgery Center: all operations take place in the practice?s fully accredited AAAHC outpatient facility in Cincinnati, designed for privacy and convenience while meeting rigorous national benchmarks for surgical care. A second office in Springboro extends the same level of service to patients throughout Southwest Ohio, Northern Kentucky, and Southeast Indiana.

Beyond the operating room, the center?s physician-supervised Cincinnati medspa offers injectables such as Botox® and dermal fillers, laser therapies, and professional skincare treatments. ?Our goal is to guide each patient toward the best version of themselves, whether that means a subtle enhancement with filler or a transformative body contouring procedure,? Dr. Mandell-Brown explained. ?No matter the treatment path, we apply the same meticulous standards and individualized attention.?

Patients frequently cite compassionate care and thorough follow-up as reasons they return and refer friends. Dr. Mandell-Brown attributes this loyalty to clear communication. ?Education empowers patients. When people understand their anatomy and what?s achievable, they feel confident moving forward,? he said.

Prospective patients can schedule consultations at the Cincinnati plastic surgery office, located at 10735 Montgomery Rd, Cincinnati, OH 45242, or the Springboro office at 52 Remick Blvd, Springboro, OH 45066.
