Cabinet Boost's Groundbreaking Era: A Case Study in Digital Marketing Success with UPMAX

July 23, 2025

Long Beach, California - July 23, 2025 -
Cabinet Boost, a leading name powered by UPMAX Digital Marketing Agency, stands out as the top AI-driven digital marketing firm focusing on cabinet stores and remodeling companies in Southern California. UPMAX manages paid advertising campaigns for businesses, with significant investments of over $2 million, demonstrating their expertise and effective campaigns for clients like Cabinet Era, helping them expand dramatically. The agency has made a significant mark by helping Cabinet Era expand from three to six showrooms and increase their warehouse capacity from 20,000 to 125,000 square feet. Cabinet Boost is recognized for its successful marketing strategies by Cabinet Boost for cabinet stores, bringing impactful results to its clients.

Focusing on the cabinetry industry, Cabinet Boost offers a wide range of digital marketing services. These include SEO optimization, strategic paid advertising, custom web design, and social media management, supported by UPMAX's extensive range of digital marketing services like marketing automation and web accessibility solutions to ensure ADA and WCAG compliance. The company also provides expertise in CRM systems and is proficient in handling Google Ads, Meta Ads, and website development. Their services ensure that cabinetry businesses in Los Angeles, Orange County, and San Diego connect with their intended audiences effectively.

Sezgin Arslan, a leading figure at Cabinet Boost, shared, "Our mission at Cabinet Boost is to empower cabinet, remodeling, and home services businesses to thrive through innovative and data-driven digital marketing strategies. We are committed to delivering ROI-focused management and dedicated account support that sets us apart as the trusted marketing partner for the cabinet industry."

A prime example of their success is the Cabinet Era case study, showcasing Cabinet Boost's specialized approach and proven results. By creating a tailored strategy, Cabinet Boost not only facilitated Cabinet Era's successful launch of Vita Cabinetry but also managed over $2 million in advertising. This strategic investment helped Cabinet Era smoothly switch to managing marketing in-house, highlighting the long-term value Cabinet Boost provides its clients.

Amid rapid changes in the digital world, Cabinet Boost remains a leader in the cabinet marketing industry, consistently providing strategic solutions for success. With its headquarters serving Southern California's bustling B2B market, Cabinet Boost continues to enhance its clients' digital presence, helping them stay competitive and achieve significant growth.

The Cabinet Boost Digital Marketing and Growth Partner sets itself apart with custom app development, resulting in increased closing rates and sales for its clients. With a focus on strategies that drive financial returns, Cabinet Boost ensures its clients see real growth and success in the cabinetry market.

"We are excited to continue our partnership with businesses in the cabinetry and remodeling sectors, helping them seize new growth opportunities and achieve their business goals," said Arslan. "Our team's expertise in digital marketing, combined with our commitment to quality and innovation, allows us to deliver unparalleled service and results."

Cabinet Boost encourages cabinet store owners and contractors to try their marketing solutions. Through UPMAX's marketing automation services, potential clients can experience streamlined processes, such as automated social media postings and email campaigns, enhancing their reach and engagement. They offer a quick, free 10-minute audit to help potential clients spot their biggest growth opportunities and find strategies that match their business goals.
