Horst Shewmaker, LLC Addresses Drop in Fatal Car Accidents, Highlights Ongoing Dangers on Alpharetta Roads

July 23, 2025

ALPHARETTA, GA - July 23, 2025 -
Horst Shewmaker, LLC, a personal injury law firm located in Alpharetta, Georgia, is responding to recent data that shows a 4% drop in fatal car accidents across the state. Although this news is positive, Alpharetta's roads, especially on the GA-400 corridor and Old Milton Parkway, remain dangerous for drivers. These locations are marked by heavy traffic and complicated intersections, making them high-risk areas.

As Alpharetta's #1 Best Personal Injury Firm, Horst Shewmaker dedicates itself to fighting for the rights of car accident and personal injury victims. More about their services and resources can be found on their company website.

"Even with the statewide improvements, roads like GA-400 and Old Milton Parkway are still very risky for motorists," said Zachary S. Shewmaker, a partner at Horst Shewmaker. "Our firm deals with the severe aftermath of accidents in these areas, and it's necessary for victims to get legal help right away to protect their rights."

The law firm uses its in-depth experience to vigorously represent victims of car accidents, aiming to secure maximum compensation for injuries and losses. With many years of combined legal expertise, the attorneys know the typical challenges drivers face in Alpharetta, which helps them handle the complexities of these busy traffic zones.

In 2023, more than 28,000 accidents have been reported annually in the Atlanta metro area. This statistic highlights the urgent need for legal assistance informed by local knowledge. Horst Shewmaker has a proven track record, having secured several high-value settlements on GA-400 and Old Milton Parkway. This success builds their reputation for strong client advocacy.

Beyond providing legal representation, Horst Shewmaker offers a wide range of resources, including blogs, FAQs, news updates, and videos. These materials help clients understand the legal process and stay informed about developments in personal injury law. The firm's detailed services for auto accidents and personal injury cases, including representation for brain injuries, dog bites, and spinal injuries, ensure that all aspects of client needs are addressed.

Shewmaker emphasizes the importance of understanding local factors that contribute to accident risks in crafting legal strategies. "We live in this community, and we know the specific challenges drivers face on Alpharetta's roads. We aim to provide not only representation but also insights that help our clients during their recovery process."

As an Alpharetta auto accident attorney, Horst Shewmaker focuses on securing maximum compensation for victims of car accidents and also on advocating for safer road conditions in the city. Their ongoing work contributes to a broader discussion about road safety in Georgia, stressing the need for focused solutions to reduce risks and safeguard drivers.

The firm's attorneys, including Michael W. Horst, Zachary S. Shewmaker, Jarrett L. Miller, and Torrie L. Dale, bring over three decades of experience to their practice. They are committed to offering effective and caring legal guidance for their clients, especially those dealing with the consequences of accidents in tough conditions like Alpharetta.

Horst Shewmaker helps those involved in various types of auto accidents, including collisions involving cars, trucks, motorcycles, Uber and Lyft, pedestrians, and bicycles. They approach each case with a dedication to achieving favorable results, often leading to substantial settlements.

Although Georgia's 4% drop in fatal accidents is a step forward, it highlights the need for continuous caution in high-risk areas. Horst Shewmaker stands ready to provide expert legal support to those affected, reinforcing their role as strong defenders of personal injury victims in Alpharetta while they work to secure maximum compensation for victims of car accidents.
