February 11, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Pompano Beach Plumbers, a plumbing company in Pompano Beach, FL, is proud to announce that they have extended their geographical reach to serve Fort Lauderdale, FL, as well. Those who live in that area and are in need of plumbing repairs, emergency plumbers or any general plumbing service are welcome to contact the company. They pride themselves on always being on standby and ready to help. More details are available at <http://www.pompanobeachplumbers.net/plumbing/fort-lauderdale/>.

Donald Reed from Pompano Beach Plumbers says: "We understand what you are going through when a plumbing emergency occurs, particularly the panic that a flood or leak can bring. We have a team of high quality plumbing technicians that can handle any type of plumbing crisis. We work on any type of project, large or small including commercial or residential properties. Our team works 24 hours a day, 7 days a week."

The company is known for their extensive services. They have worked across Pompano Beach for many years and have built a reputation as being one of the best plumbers in the area. Their reliable, professional service is what sets them apart from others. More details of the various services that they offer are available at <http://www.pompanobeachplumbers.net>. While known for their emergency, 24/7 service, they also offer regular plumbing services, including scheduled maintenance. Through their website, people can request a free estimate for any job.

The company has built a fantastic reputation over the years, with many happy and loyal customers. "This plumber was extremely professional," says William. "He was efficient, on time, and extremely detailed. My plumbing looks better than it has ever been. I am glad I called them to fix the plumbing under my sink."

Pompano Beach Plumbers has also recently launched its Facebook page. They encourage everyone to give them a like to remain up to date with industry news. The page also provides them with the opportunity to communicate with the company directly, to leave reviews or to ask plumbing-related questions. The page is already attracting a lot of attention, particularly now that those in Fort Lauderdale can also use the service.
