August 18, 2025

GARLAND, TX - August 18, 2025 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Keathley Landscaping, a well-known provider of landscaping services based in Dallas, Texas, is excited to announce the expansion of their services in the Allen area. This growth brings specialized offerings, like custom stonework in Allen Texas, available through their website. The move comes as more people in the area seek top-notch, personalized outdoor solutions. Keathley Landscaping is recognized for turning outdoor spaces into stylish and inviting living areas, with services like their Allen Texas flagstone installation being highly sought after.

Since its founding in 2002, Keathley Landscaping has been offering a full range of landscaping and outdoor construction services. They have developed a solid reputation for crafting unique spaces tailored to meet the specific needs and preferences of their clients. This expansion aims to extend their expertise and creative designs to more communities, including Allen, Garland, Wylie, and Plano.

Logan Keathley, spokesperson for the company, shared insights into their vision: "Our mission has always been to create beautiful and functional outdoor spaces that our clients can enjoy. Expanding into Allen allows us to bring our services closer to more people, so they can benefit from our custom stonework and landscaping expertise."

The company is known for its natural and modern stonework, offering a wide range of services from installing patios, decks, and pergolas to crafting outdoor fireplaces and kitchens. Visit their website to explore these services in detail. These enhancements not only boost aesthetics but also improve functionality, providing perfect spots for relaxation and social gatherings. Of special interest is their Allen TX paver installation contractor service, which is noted for its durability and elegance, capable of standing up to the local climate.

Keathley Landscaping places a strong emphasis on enhancing both the visual appeal and structural integrity of outdoor spaces. Their expertise includes constructing retaining walls and veneers, which serve the dual purpose of supporting landscapes and adding style to any yard. This structural focus is complemented by their Allen Texas flagstone installation, which is known for gracefully blending classic with contemporary styles.

Besides hardscaping, the company offers essential lawn care and garden maintenance services. They cover routine tasks such as mowing, fertilization, and tree trimming to keep properties in excellent condition year-round. By combining these maintenance services with their installation options, Keathley Landscaping provides a comprehensive solution for outdoor space management.

A key part of their approach involves community engagement, with an emphasis on sustainable landscaping practices. They advise clients on eco-friendly options, like native plants and water-efficient systems. The company offers guidance on achieving sustainability goals without sacrificing design or functionality.

Logan Keathley underscores this commitment: "Sustainability is central to what we do. As we grow, we're dedicated to providing solutions that not only look good but are also good for the environment. Our approach harmonizes creativity and practicality, creating spaces that our clients can be proud of for the long term."

Through their thoughtful approach, Keathley Landscaping aims to maintain its tradition of excellence while adapting to the changing needs of clients. By offering custom stonework in Allen Texas, available on their website, they further establish themselves as leaders in innovative and personalized outdoor solutions. Their focus on clients ensures long-lasting relationships built on trust and satisfaction.

For those interested in their expanded services, Keathley Landscaping encourages both new and existing clients to reach out for consultations. With an experienced team and an impressive portfolio available online, the company is equipped to handle a variety of projects, serving both small residential and larger commercial clients. Their commitment to quality and innovation makes them a standout choice for landscaping services in the region.
