Century Pools Expands: Discover Customizable Inground Pool Options Now Available in Roseville

August 20, 2025

Orangevale, CA - August 20, 2025 -
Century Pools has announced that it's expanding its services to include a new range of customizable inground pools. This exciting development will benefit residents across Northern California, especially in areas like Roseville. The company has always aimed to offer tailored pools that fit various backyard styles. With options like Gunite, Freeform, Geometric, and Pool and Spa Combo, these pools cater to different design tastes and space needs, so they blend seamlessly with any home.

Since it began back in 1964, Century Pools has been a family-run business based in Orangevale, California. Their reputation, detailed on their website, is built on attention to detail and a focus on customer satisfaction. Patrick O'Neal, a senior team member, shared, "Our move into the customizable inground pool market is about realizing our clients' visions while upholding superior craftsmanship." Century Pools wants to make it easier for customers to pick pools that match their specific requirements, whether that's a lap pool, an infinity edge, or a pool with varying depths, combining both practicality and beauty.

The demand for inground pools has been on the rise in Northern California, as more people start to see their outdoor spaces as vital parts of their homes. With plenty of sunshine, especially in Roseville, owning a pool becomes a year-round enjoyment. The new inground pool options from Century Pools are not just about making life more enjoyable; they also boost property values, adding a valuable leisure feature to homes. This makes now a great time to consider a project like Inground Pool Roseville as detailed on their website.

Century Pools distinguishes itself not just with its wide array of pool styles but also with its sustainable approach. This new lineup includes eco-friendly choices such as solar heating and energy-efficient pumps. Patrick O'Neal notes, "We don't just build beautiful pools; we create sustainable spaces that honor our environment." Their focus on eco-friendly practices is part of a larger trend toward sustainability, giving customers a way to enjoy luxury without a heavy ecological footprint.

The process from design to installation is smooth and led by a skilled team committed to top-notch service. This includes consultations to meet clients' specific needs, ensuring every design reflects the homeowner's vision while maintaining high building standards. Clients can visit Century Pools' design center to explore and customize pool options that best fit their spaces.

Beyond exceptional craftsmanship, Century Pools is well-regarded for its community involvement. The company is committed to workforce diversity, fair wages, and participation in community projects throughout Northern California. This focus on social responsibility is woven into their business model, reinforcing their commitment to both clients and the community.

Century Pools continues to be a leader in the inground pool industry in Northern California, specifically in Roseville. Their attention to detail and dedication to quality and sustainability make each pool more than a project; it's a custom-made feature that enhances living spaces.

By offering everything from construction to installation, Century Pools ensures each job is done with meticulous attention to detail, designed to endure the California climate. Their work has received positive reviews on Google and Yelp, building a foundation of trust with their customers.

With this expansion, Century Pools is ready to bring Roseville a variety of inground pool choices, all crafted with the precision and personalized service that the name Century Pools represents. As they grow and enhance their offerings, they continue to lead by emphasizing luxury, sustainability, and customer satisfaction. "Inground Pool Roseville" is a project that promises homeowners a relaxing oasis that perfectly matches their home and way of life. For more information, visit the Century Pools website.
