Century Pools Unveils Luxurious Inground Pool Options for Citrus Heights Homeowners

August 21, 2025

Orangevale, CA - August 21, 2025 -
Century Pools, a well-known family-owned business dedicated to turning Northern California backyards into luxurious retreats, has just expanded their offerings of customizable inground pool options. Since their founding in Orangevale, California, back in 1964, they have been blending artistic design with the science of construction, offering a range of pools to meet different preferences and fit various spaces. Their latest line introduces Gunite, Freeform, and Geometric pools, along with the popular Pool and Spa Combo, all designed to cater to various tastes while making the most of backyard areas.

Patrick O'Neal, a senior spokesperson for Century Pools, emphasized the company's focus on top-notch craftsmanship and customer satisfaction. He stated, "Our goal has always been to provide our clients with pools that are not only beautiful but also built to last. We have an A+ rating from the Better Business Bureau, which reflects our commitment to excellence and the satisfaction of our clients." With over fifty years of expertise, they are known for creating designs that fit seamlessly into any residential space.

In addition to offering a wide range of pool designs, Century Pools is committed to sustainability. Their new pool line features eco-friendly options like solar heating and energy-efficient pumps, which let homeowners enjoy their pools while keeping the environmental impact low. These eco-friendly features align with current needs for energy efficiency, allowing pool owners to make choices that benefit the environment.

Century Pools provides a full range of services, including inground pool construction, custom swimming pool design, pool repair, and maintenance. They have expertise in various types of inground pools, ensuring each one meets the specific needs of the client and fits the unique characteristics of their property. This focus on personalized service enhances the outdoor living experiences for homeowners in Citrus Heights and nearby areas.

For more details on their extensive range of services and success stories, potential clients are encouraged to visit Century Pools online. The comprehensive description of their offerings and details on how they became a leading name in pool construction can be found on their website.

The leading name in pool construction, Century Pools takes pride in offering expert consultations during planning and installation. Their professional team works closely with clients to ensure the finished product aligns with their vision while upholding the high standards the company is known for. Their comprehensive process starts by understanding the client's wants and concludes with delivering a well-constructed pool.

O'Neal also mentioned the company's role in local community projects and its commitment to workforce diversity and fair wages. Century Pools aims to support the Northern California community that has been with them since the beginning. This dedication is a core part of their philosophy and is evident in their business practices.

Located at 8788 Greenback Ln #101 in Orangevale, California, Century Pools offers services not only to Citrus Heights but also to Sacramento, Roseville, Lincoln, Elk Grove, Galt, Rancho Cordova, Fair Oaks, and other parts of Northern California.
