August 12, 2025

RAPID CITY, SD - August 12, 2025 -
The Grounds Guys of Rapid City, a leading player among Rapid City landscaping companies, is excited to expand its service offerings. Well-known for providing a wide range of services to both residential and commercial clients, The Grounds Guys of Rapid City consistently raise the bar in the landscaping industry.

Locally owned and operated, the company has made a name for itself in areas such as landscape design, lawn care, pest and weed control, and more. Now, they've broadened their service menu to include advanced artificial turf installation, power and pressure washing for property maintenance, and professional holiday lighting installation. These new services aim to address various client needs and keep outdoor spaces both attractive and functional.

"Our goal is to offer full solutions for our clients, making sure every part of their landscape is managed," said Johnny Lazear, spokesperson for The Grounds Guys of Rapid City. "With the expansion of our services, we are not only addressing current demands but are also looking ahead to what our clients might need, helping them maintain outdoor spaces that are both beautiful and healthy."

As the region heads into winter, the company has added robust snow and ice management solutions. Clients can now benefit from comprehensive snow clearing, plowing, ice melting, and snow relocation services, highlighting the company's dedication to year-round service.

Known as professional landscapers Rapid City SD relies on, the company also provides specialized services like hardscape design and installation to improve both the look and usability of outdoor areas. These services include creating stone pathways, patios, and retaining walls, further cementing their strong position in the industry.

"Our expanded service options show our commitment to meeting the needs of our community," added Johnny Lazear. "We know the residents of Rapid City need reliable and professional landscaping services, and we aim to be their first choice by offering top-quality service."

Moreover, the company focuses on sustainability and eco-friendly practices. By using green products and techniques, especially in fertilization and pest control, The Grounds Guys of Rapid City not only improve appearances but also make a positive environmental impact.
