Spring Tours Of Copper Ridge Land For Sale Announced

February 16, 2016

February 16, 2016 -
Copper Ridge, a development in New Braunfels, TX, has announced they will be organizing a spring tour of homes. The event will take place on Saturday and Sunday, March 5 and 6, 2016. It will give people the opportunity to drive out to Copper Ridge and view the homes. More details can be found at www.CopperRidgeTX.com.

Todd Menger from Copper Ridge says: "During the event, you will be able to tour fully-furnished, builder model homes and meet with interior designers, lenders, landscapers, and more to create the new home of your dreams. You can discover the best, most innovative features to include in your new home and get 10% off your New Acreage Homesite during the Copper Ridge Spring Tour of Homes. This provides savings of up to $15,000."

A lot of people are currently looking for land for sale in New Braunfels Texas. Copper Ridge offers the only gated and guarded community in the town. The homes in the homesite are premium, but made to be affordable. The community is known to be picture perfect and relaxing, which is why it is suitable for retirees and families alike. This part of what is known as the Texas Hill Country has a wealth of amenities on its doorstep and Copper Ridge comes with a private homeowners' park with a resort-style swimming pool, a Texas-style pavilion with fireplace, tennis and basketball courts, and more.

Initial interest in Copper Ridge homes has been tremendous and it is expected that the open tour day will be a great success. Those who have been to visit have been very positive about their experiences. "Copper Ridge is one of the most beautiful communities in the hill country," says Eli V. All who have been to visit comment on its beauty, and many comment on the excellent security, comfortable pool and wonderful amenities.

During the event, people will also be able to discuss the easy financing options that are available. Veterans will be able to take advantage of special rates as well. Substantial savings are available on those days, so the event truly is an opportunity not to be missed for anyone interested in this homestead.
###
For more information about Copper Ridge, contact the company here:Copper RidgeTodd Menger(877) 888-9917copperridge@southlp.com5737 Highway 46New Braunfels, TX 78132

Copper Ridge

We purchase large tracts of highly desirable recreational and residential land, we then develop and sell buildable homesites. We pledge a commitment to excellence in every transaction, paying attention to appropriate land use and environmental impact.

Website: http://copperridgetx.com/

Email: copperridge@southlp.com

Phone: (877) 888-9917