Revamp the Space: Iconic Tiles Introduces New Bathroom Tiles with Timber Flooring Collection

August 20, 2025

Smithfield, NSW - August 20, 2025 -
Iconic Tiles has introduced its new Timber Flooring Collection, designed to be both stylish and durable, suitable for residential and commercial spaces. This collection includes pre-finished solid timber, hybrid flooring, laminate flooring, and engineered timber flooring. Each option is made to give a warm and natural feel to any space, while also being easy to care for and long-lasting.

With the Timber Flooring Collection, Iconic Tiles shows its dedication to offering a diverse range of products for its customers. Based in Sydney, the company is a dependable choice for those looking for tiles sydney residents trust. Their selection covers everything from indoor tiles to bathroom accessories and kitchen sinks.

Iconic Tiles provides a wide range of solutions, including durable and weather-resistant outdoor tiles perfect for spaces like patios, decks, and walkways. The company also offers an extensive variety of bathroom tiles designed to withstand moisture, providing both aesthetic appeal and durability.

"We're delighted to launch our Timber Flooring Collection," says the Sales Manager at Iconic Tiles. "This new range not only broadens our inventory but also offers our customers more options for enhancing their homes and offices. We believe this collection meets the needs of those seeking high-quality and beautiful flooring."

Iconic Tiles is well-known for its extensive array of products. The new flooring options are a natural fit with their existing selections, which include bathroom tiles and natural stones. Natural stones offered by Iconic Tiles provide robust and versatile solutions suitable for various applications like flooring and wall cladding. The company takes pride in offering both quality and variety, helping customers find the perfect pieces to match their design goals.

Customers can also benefit from quick delivery, with orders arriving in 2-4 business days, keeping projects on track. No matter the size of the order, efficient service and timely delivery are guaranteed. This edge sets Iconic Tiles apart, strengthening its reputation for dependability and customer satisfaction.

In addition to their wide product range, Iconic Tiles offers a design consultation service, where customers can work with design experts to choose the best products for their projects, whether it's tiles, timber flooring, or other items from their selection. This service helps customers make choices that fit both their style and budget.

"Customer satisfaction comes first, and our new Timber Flooring Collection shows Iconic Tiles' focus on providing excellent products and services," the Sales Manager continues. "We're here to help our clients create spaces they'll enjoy for a long time."

The company also excels in offering a variety of bathware, from luxurious bathtubs and sleek shower screens to modern vanities. Iconic Tiles also connects customers with skilled installers, ensuring the finished project meets high standards of quality and craftsmanship.

The Timber Flooring Collection is now available online and in-store at Iconic Tiles. This new launch mirrors the company's ongoing effort to offer innovative and varied products that address the unique needs of their customers. Whether for a home or business, Iconic Tiles has a solution within their wide range of products.

With an emphasis on quality, design, and customer service, Iconic Tiles remains a leader in providing versatile solutions for all types of architectural and interior design projects. The company's promise of delivering style and performance makes it a trusted partner for the Sydney community and beyond, providing tiles sydney residents can rely on for their flooring needs.

As Sydney is known for its dynamic architecture and design culture, Iconic Tiles meets the demand for top-quality products that help create distinct spaces. Homeowners and developers looking for unique design solutions can count on the company for expert service and advice.
