August 12, 2025

ERIE, CO - August 12, 2025 -
Apex Money Lending Group LLC has introduced a new offering for real estate investors: the Apex Money Lending Group Commercial Real Estate Loan in Colorado. This loan is designed for those looking to finance various commercial properties such as office buildings, industrial spaces, and multifamily units. The aim is to offer flexibility and quick processing to meet the demands of the bustling real estate market.

Apex Money Lending Group focuses on hard money lending and places emphasis on property value rather than credit scores. This approach benefits investors who need fast access to funds. The company's structure allows borrowers to secure up to 65% of their property's appraised value, with loans starting at $100,000 and interest rates from 12%.

"Our latest commercial real estate loan product underscores our commitment to providing innovative financing solutions to Colorado's real estate investors," said Marcus Jeffery, a representative of the company. "By focusing on the property's value and stepping around traditional credit barriers, we enable our clients to seize opportunities swiftly and efficiently."

This loan is crafted with Colorado's active real estate market in mind. With potential funding available in just ten business days, the service offers speed and efficiency, crucial for those eager to capitalize on the swiftly changing market. By not requiring credit score evaluations, Apex Money Lending Group opens up the market to a wider pool of potential investors.

Beyond their commercial real estate loans, Apex offers a variety of financing options to fit diverse needs. These include asset-based loans, secured by real estate value; bridge loans for interim financing; and business acquisition loans to support growth. They also offer specialized loans like those for cannabis businesses or fix and flip projects, demonstrating their dedication to supporting a broad range of business activities.

Each loan type is tailored to support different investment strategies, from short-term renovations to long-term projects like acquiring industrial properties. The flexible terms allow clients to select loan structures that align with their financial strategies and business goals.

"Apex Money Lending Group is committed to refining and expanding our offerings to meet the dynamic needs of our clients," Jeffery stated. "Our commercial real estate loan shows our focus on delivering personalized solutions that offer real benefits to borrowers quickly."

By using data-driven insights and modern technology, Apex Money Lending Group simplifies the loan process. It's an efficient experience from start to finish, highlighting the company's commitment to customer satisfaction.
