

Resurgence Unveils Compassionate Addiction Treatment Center in Riverside, California, Serving Wood Streets & Belvedere Heights

August 13, 2025

JURUPA VALLEY, CA - August 13, 2025 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Resurgence Behavioral Health is proud to announce the continued excellence of its Riverside facility, located at 3686 Pacific Ave., Riverside, CA, 92509, in serving people from across California seeking compassionate, expert-led recovery. As a leading treatment center in the region, Resurgence offers a uniquely human approach that sets it apart as a standout drug rehab in Riverside, California. With services that blend clinical professionalism and heartfelt care, Resurgence remains the top choice for people from communities like Wood Streets and Belvedere Heights looking for effective, long-term substance abuse treatment programs.

The Riverside alcohol and drug rehab location has become a beacon of hope for people who are searching for help from a trusted alcohol rehab center in Riverside or looking for drug rehab California services that prioritize dignity, respect, and personal growth. The facility offers a complete continuum of care designed to support every stage of recovery, from drug detox and alcohol detox to long-term residential and outpatient support. Every program is tailored to the unique needs of each patient, recognizing that healing is a deeply personal journey.

Patients often remark on the life-changing support they receive at Resurgence, and the stories they share speak volumes about the facility's impact. One former patient, Hana H., reflected on her time at the center, saying, "My detox experience was pretty rough honestly but the rest of the time I was there was great. The staff is amazing the groups are usually very good and the food is great. My husband and I were able to go through the process together which was something that makes this place really special. They really care about their clients and we will be forever grateful for Resurgence for what they've done for us." This kind of testimony highlights the powerful connection between patients and staff that defines the Riverside experience.

From the very beginning of treatment, patients are welcomed into a nurturing environment where healing feels possible. The alcoholism treatment program at Resurgence supports people struggling with alcohol-related issues by combining medical expertise with emotional encouragement. With onsite alcohol detox and ongoing therapeutic care, people receive the tools and understanding needed to rebuild their lives in a meaningful way. For those searching online for an alcohol rehab near me that truly prioritizes people, the Riverside Center is an ideal destination.

Resurgence Behavioral Health also provides comprehensive drug detox services designed to safely guide patients through the early stages of physical and mental withdrawal. These services are backed by medical monitoring and the constant presence of a skilled and caring team. However, the journey doesn't stop at detox—patients are then invited to embark on more profound healing through structured therapy, peer support groups, and life-skills training, which together lay the foundation for long-term wellness.

The facility's multidimensional treatment model combines behavioral therapies, relapse prevention strategies, and wellness practices to address the full scope of each patient's needs. From cognitive behavioral therapy and dialectical behavior therapy to trauma-informed care and group work, every treatment plan is personalized to give patients the best chance at sustainable recovery.

What sets Resurgence apart from other facilities is not just its clinical approach, but its genuine belief in human potential. The team's commitment to each patient's success is evident in every interaction, and their philosophy is straightforward: recovery is possible, and everyone deserves a chance to thrive. Families are also an essential part of the process, and the Riverside location prioritizes offering programming that includes loved ones, encourages healthy relationships, and strengthens support networks at home.

This emphasis on community extends beyond the facility's walls, with many people from Riverside's neighborhoods—such as Wood Streets and Belvedere Heights—finding their way to Resurgence through word of mouth, online searches, and referrals. Whether someone is seeking a drug rehab that feels welcoming and professional or requires a trustworthy alcohol treatment center, the Riverside team is ready to walk alongside them, step by step.

At its core, Resurgence Behavioral Health's Riverside location is more than just a drug rehab California option—it's a sanctuary for people seeking a fresh start. The combination of structured care, thoughtful amenities, and truly exceptional staff makes the facility a premier destination for treatment. People find not only expert help here, but also hope, encouragement, and lasting connection.
