February 16, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Coronation Internet Marketing Ltd. is proud to announce the opening of its new office in Las Vegas, Nevada, as they continue their expansion south of the border of Canada. This search engine optimization (SEO) agency was originally known as Hurricane Web Design in Vancouver, BC. This latest office of the company firmly establishes their presence as a local leader in the area for search engine optimization services as well as website design, which they were originally known for when they started in Vancouver.

"We're so happy to have opened our doors in Las Vegas," says Cary Blackburn from Coronation Internet Marketing Ltd. "We look forward to serving many more clients in this area."

SEO services are the primary service specialty of this digital marketing agency, helping small to medium sized businesses adapt their marketing mix to include internet exposure, and attract new customers in an increasingly popular online marketplace.

The company, with website at www.coronationim.com, works with clients in a range of industries and markets across North America, primarily in the home service and personal service sectors. Their client list is made up of various industries, including law firms, dental practices, carpet cleaning companies, air conditioning & heating service providers, and realtors.

In addition to SEO, where work is performed to improve a website's placement in the search results provided by search engines, such as Google and Bing for terms searched by prospective clients, the company also provides digital marketing services that include pay-per-click advertising, Facebook and social media campaigns, as well as a range of website design and maintenance services.

With headquarters in the Greater Vancouver city of Port Coquitlam, Coronation Internet Marketing provides the same great level of service and performance that customers have grown to know and expect from their expert team. In addition to its Greater Vancouver and Las Vegas presence, the company also serves clients in the Greater Phoenix market.

For more information on Coronation Internet Marketing and their services, people are encouraged to visit the company website, and to like their new Facebook business page for Las Vegas. Also, the company has announced that the company's very own Cary Blackburn and Bryan Fisher will be speakers at the Awards and Personalization Association expo at the Rio Hotel in Las Vegas on March 2, 2016.
