MARIETTA, GA - August 11, 2025 -

Marietta, GA ? K L Contractor Plumbing Inc., owned and operated by Konstantin Lozovyi, continues to be a trusted source for water heater installation and water heater repair in Marietta, GA, and across all Metro Atlanta. Serving residents in ZIP codes 30064, 30066, 30068, 30061, 30069, 30007, 30063, 30006, 30067, 30008, 30062, 30065, and 30060, the company offers prompt, professional, and reliable solutions for homeowners who need new systems or fast repairs.

The demand for dependable water heater services remains high as more residents experience issues like a water heater going out unexpectedly, a water heater pilot light out, or the need to upgrade to a more energy-efficient tankless water heater. K L Contractor Plumbing Inc. has built its reputation on responding quickly and resolving problems with clear communication and expert service.

?People depend on hot water every day for cooking, cleaning, and bathing,? said owner Konstantin Lozovyi.

?When a water heater goes out, it?s not just an inconvenience?it disrupts daily life. Our goal is to get our customers back to normal as quickly as possible while making sure the repair or installation is done right the first time.?

The company?s water heater installation services cover both traditional tank units and modern tankless water heaters. Many homeowners in Marietta are switching to tankless systems for their space-saving design and energy efficiency. The team at K L Contractor Plumbing Inc. installs these systems with the same attention and precision they bring to every job. Their approach is simple: listen to the customer?s needs, recommend the right solution, and complete the work to the highest standard.

For residents experiencing issues such as a water heater pilot light out or no hot water at all, the company?s water heater repair services are available across the city. From quick fixes to full system replacements, K L Contractor Plumbing Inc. can diagnose the problem and offer a clear path forward. In areas like 30068, where many homes require timely water heater repair to avoid disruption, the company has become a go-to service provider.

?Our customers trust us because we explain the problem in plain language and give them honest options,? Lozovyi said. ?We don?t try to upsell. If we can repair a water heater and extend its life, we will. If replacement is the better choice, we?ll guide them through the process. It?s about doing what?s right for the customer.?

K L Contractor Plumbing Inc. understands that a water heater emergency does not wait for a convenient time. That is why K L Contractor Plumbing Inc. offers fast response times and flexible scheduling. Whether it is a middle-of-the-night water heater went out situation or a planned upgrade to a tankless water heater, the team works with urgency and professionalism.

Serving all of Marietta and the greater Metro Atlanta area, the company?s commitment extends beyond plumbing work. K L Contractor Plumbing Inc. values its role as a local business that supports the community. By hiring locally, sourcing materials from trusted suppliers, and treating each job as an opportunity to strengthen relationships, the company builds trust one home at a time.

Lozovyi emphasized this point, saying, ?We live here, work here, and raise our families here. Every job is personal to us. We want our customers to feel like they can call us any time and know they will be treated with respect.?

The company?s strong reputation is backed by positive reviews from homeowners across Marietta and Metro Atlanta. Customers praise the team?s ability to handle both small and large water heater jobs with equal care. Many note the clear explanations, fair pricing, and dependable workmanship that set K L Contractor Plumbing Inc. apart from other service providers.

As more residents consider upgrading their water heaters, K L Contractor Plumbing Inc. remains ready to guide them through every step, from selecting the right system to professional installation. With a growing number of homeowners exploring tankless water heaters for their energy savings and consistent hot water supply, the company?s expertise in these systems continues to be in high demand.

Whether the job is a straightforward water heater installation, a quick repair to relight a pilot light, or a complete system upgrade to a tankless water heater, K L Contractor Plumbing Inc. offers solutions that match the needs of the customer. The company?s focus on clear communication, reliable work, and community connection ensures that residents in Marietta can count on them for years to come.

?Our mission has always been simple?do good work, treat people well, and stand behind what we do,? said Lozovyi. ?If we can solve a problem for a neighbor and make their day a little easier, then we?ve done our job.?
