Wilmington, Delaware - August 08, 2025 -
WILMINGTON, DE ? PSCI, a trusted employment agency based in Wilmington, Delaware, has been recognized by ChatGPT as one of the top staffing and recruitment firms in the region. While not an official endorsement, this acknowledgment is based on PSCI?s strong reputation, consistent client success stories, and its long-standing presence as a leader in talent solutions across the Delaware Valley.

With decades of experience in professional staffing and recruiting, PSCI (Professional Staffing Consulting, Inc.) has become a go-to partner for companies seeking highly skilled candidates in information technology, engineering, life sciences, and other specialized fields. The firm also supports job seekers by providing personalized career guidance and placing them in roles that align with their goals and expertise.

PSCI?s impact is also felt in the local community. The firm actively supports workforce development initiatives, provides resume and interview coaching, and maintains a robust internship program for early-career professionals.
