Lily Bridal and More in Oakbrook Terrace, IL Unveils Online Appointment Booking for its Bridal Shops

September 17, 2025

September 17, 2025 -
Lily Bridal and More, a bridal boutique in Oakbrook Terrace, Illinois, offers new streamlined online appointment booking capabilities. The bridal boutique also expanded its collection of dresses to better serve brides throughout the greater Chicago area.

The boutique has enhanced its website to showcase an extensive selection of wedding dresses from five distinguished designer collections, including Lily Bridal, Lily Bridal Luxe, Lili Pellegrino, Nava Bride, and Saiid Kobeisy. The expanded online catalog allows brides to preview styles before scheduling their in-store consultation, addressing the common concern of "which wedding dress is right for me," through comprehensive style categorization and detailed imagery.

The enhanced digital experience represents a significant investment in customer convenience, enabling brides to explore the full range of available styles from home before committing to an appointment. The boutique's website now features improved navigation across its bridal collections, evening wear selections, and extensive accessories department, which includes everything from bridal shoes and headpieces to bouquets and specialty items.

"The modern bride expects a seamless journey from initial inspiration to finding her perfect dress," said a representative at Lily Bridal and More. "Our enhanced online platform allows brides to explore our collections at their own pace, then easily book an appointment when they're ready for that personalized, in-store experience with our expert stylists."

The boutique maintains active social media engagement across multiple platforms, regularly updating its collections and showcasing real brides. Customers can see the latest bridal gowns on Instagram, where the boutique shares styling inspiration, new arrivals, and behind-the-scenes glimpses of the bridal experience.

The online appointment system offers various consultation options, including standard bridal appointments and VIP experiences for brides seeking extended, private consultations. Each appointment includes personalized attention from experienced stylists who guide brides through the selection process, ensuring proper fit and style alignment with their wedding vision.

Beyond its core bridal offerings, Lily Bridal and More provides comprehensive services including in-house alterations, gown preservation, and evening wear selections from designers Saiid Kobeisy and Jiflar. The boutique has earned recognition from industry publications, including The Knot, Brides Magazine, Business Insider, and Bazaar Bride.

The expanded collection includes diverse silhouettes, fabrics, and design aesthetics to accommodate various wedding themes, body types, and personal preferences. From classic ballgowns to modern minimalist designs, the curated selection ensures brides can find their style or size with Lily Bridal and More, regardless of their specific requirements.

Lily Bridal and More operates from its Oakbrook Terrace location, serving brides throughout Illinois and the surrounding region. The boutique specializes in providing a comprehensive bridal experience, from initial dress selection through final alterations and preservation services. The company's dedication to exceptional service and exclusive designer access has established it as a trusted destination for discerning brides seeking both quality and variety in their wedding dress selection.
