

Eli's Paver Patios Among Elite Pavers Contractors in Olympia, WA as Belgard® Master Craftsman

August 21, 2025

Tumwater, Washington - August 21, 2025 -
Eli's Paver Patios has been named one of just three Belgard® Master Craftsmen in Washington State. This recognition is a big deal in the hardscape industry, acknowledging the exceptional skills and dedication of Eli's Paver Patios' team. Achieving this status isn't easy and reflects the company's commitment to high-quality work in every project they take on.

The Belgard® Master Craftsman certification is given to professionals who show outstanding abilities in designing and installing paver and wall systems. Eli's Paver Patios is now among a unique group of craftsmen nationwide who hold this honor. Clients can be confident they are receiving services that meet the highest industry standards. To earn this certification, professionals must meet tough requirements, including superior technical skills, consistently high-quality work, and effective use of Belgard products.

Eli's Paver Patios specializes in a range of services, including high-quality paver installations for patios, driveways, and walkways, outdoor living space enhancements with fire pits and outdoor kitchens, retaining wall constructions, and artificial turf installation, ensuring a lush green lawn all year round. More about these services can be found on their company website.

With only three professionals in Washington holding this certification, Eli's Paver Patios is distinguished for their exceptional craftsmanship. This certification is held by only a few craftsmen across the country, highlighting its exclusive nature. It assures clients that projects will meet strict standards and comes with an enhanced warranty, ensuring long-term quality. This reduced risk is a significant benefit for homeowners planning to invest in quality hardscaping.

This achievement opens a new chapter for the company. Eli's Paver Patios is a family-owned business with decades of combined experience. Their commitment to excellence, which started years ago, is evident in every job they complete. The Belgard® Master Craftsman title aligns perfectly with their commitment to quality and long-term customer satisfaction. Representatives from the company believe that earning this title strengthens their mission to deliver top-notch service and results to their clients.

Kira Mettler, representing Eli's Paver Patios, spoke about this achievement, stating, "Becoming a Belgard® Master Craftsman reflects the hard work and talent of our team. It confirms our dedication to setting high standards for outdoor living spaces. Our clients can feel assured in knowing they are investing in quality that endures."

Eli's Paver Patios is focused on keeping their clients informed. Potential clients can Read Reviews from those who have already experienced the company's work.

Eli's Paver Patios will continue to provide innovative and sustainable solutions for all hardscape needs as part of their commitment to ongoing improvement.
