

Paint Buddy and Co Expands House Painting Services

August 29, 2025

August 29, 2025 -
Paint Buddy and Co, a well-known painting company based in Dee Why, Northern Sydney, is celebrating a big milestone with the expansion of their roof and strata painting services throughout the Sydney region. This move shows Paint Buddy & Co's dedication to meeting the growing needs of their residential and commercial clients while still providing top-tier quality, affordable prices, and detailed work.

Since 2011, Paint Buddy & Co has earned a reputation for their impressive property transformations. They offer a wide range of services, including interior and exterior painting, residential house painting, commercial painting, and decorative finishes. The recent growth in their roof and strata painting services is a deliberate step to bring more options and solutions to customers in Sydney.

Max Papa, CEO of Paint Buddy & Co, shared his thoughts on the expansion, stating, "Our customers' needs are ever-evolving, and the extension of our roof and strata painting services is a direct response to the demand we've observed. We are committed to offering comprehensive solutions that not only meet but exceed our clients' expectations, ensuring their properties are both beautiful and well-protected."

Focusing on quality work and keeping customers happy, Paint Buddy & Co remains a trusted local service in Sydney. The company is known for blending industry know-how with modern painting techniques to meet the needs of both homeowners and business operators. Expanding their services lets them reach areas like the Northern Beaches, North Shore, Inner West, Parramatta, and more.

For those in need of a qualified painter in Northern Beaches or extensive painting work in Dee Why, Paint Buddy & Co has a team of skilled professionals ready to deliver results on every project. Customers can learn more about their expertise in commercial painting, exterior painting, roof painting and more by visiting their online platforms. The company is committed to sustainability by offering eco-friendly painting solutions, using energy-efficient equipment, and practicing responsible waste management.

Max Papa also pointed out, "Each painting project is an opportunity to enhance and protect one of the most important investments people make ? their property. That's why our team at Paint Buddy & Co takes pride in every stroke, ensuring we apply the highest standards across all our services, whether it's a simple residential touch-up or a comprehensive commercial overhaul."

Paint Buddy & Co's commitment to putting customers first means every project is carried out with professionalism, transparency, and a clear understanding of what the client needs. They offer free estimates, including the newly expanded roof and strata painting services, always focusing on quality and value.

As Paint Buddy & Co marks this expansion, interested parties all over Sydney are invited to experience the company's skill and attention to detail. Their promise to enhance both the look and function of properties through quality painting services remains a key part of what they offer.

For those in the market to improve their property and protect it from the weather, the services of a painter Dee Why are now more readily available through Paint Buddy & Co. The company operates daily from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM and can be easily contacted through phone or their active social media platforms, like Facebook, Instagram, and LinkedIn on their website.

The expansion of Paint Buddy & Co's roof and strata services highlights their role as a leader in the local painting industry. They provide reliable and comprehensive services that boost the look of properties across Sydney. This achievement reflects the company's commitment to innovation, customer satisfaction, and quality work.

###

For more information about Paint Buddy and Co, contact the company here:Paint Buddy and CoMax Papa0401 689 879paintbuddyco@gmail.comPaint Buddy and Co.Upper North Shore and Northern Beaches

Paint Buddy and Co

Paint Buddy & Co. is a family-owned business built on trust and quality. We offer residential and commercial painting in Northern Beaches. With 10+ years? experience, we deliver on time and to your satisfaction. Call us today for a free quote!

Website: https://paintbuddyco.com.au/

Email: paintbuddyco@gmail.com

Phone: 0401 689 879