

BANKSFORD Sets New Standards as Leading Catering Clothing Supplier with Expanded Hospitality Uniform Range

August 21, 2025

Whitley Bay, UK - August 21, 2025 -
Banksford, a well-known supplier from the UK specializing in hospitality uniforms and staff workwear, has expanded its range of catering clothing products. This new launch cements their reputation as an important catering clothing supplier, offering a wide selection of high-quality uniforms specifically for the hospitality industry. Banksford designs their products to meet the varied needs of catering and hospitality settings while focusing on value and quality.

The new range from Banksford includes a wide variety of chefswear with options like chef jackets, trousers, and aprons, all available with logo customization featuring logo embroidery and printing services. This helps businesses to incorporate their branding into the uniforms, enhancing corporate identity. Banksford's extensive collection of aprons can be explored for those interested in customizing these essential pieces. Banksford also caters to different sectors such as bars, restaurants, and coffee shops, ensuring businesses have the right attire for their staff.

Louise Midgley, a representative of the company, said, "Our goal is to provide versatile and durable workwear solutions that meet the specific needs of the hospitality industry. By extending our product line, we give our clients more options, ensuring they can pick the best garments for their teams." Their focus on customer needs has led to great feedback, shown by impressive 5-star reviews.

As a Banksford catering clothing supplier, the company offers free UK delivery for orders over £150, making it an attractive option for businesses looking for cost-effective, quality workwear. They also provide expert advice on garments and branding to help clients choose the right uniforms and navigate options like their selection of tops for a professional look.

Banksford's wide-ranging selection includes more than just chefswear. They also have tops, trousers, jackets, headwear, and accessories, such as various neck ties and scarves, all available with logo customization. Their uniforms aim to offer comfort and professionalism, vital in hospitality, so staff can work efficiently while representing a unified company image.

Louise Midgley further noted, "We offer more than just uniforms. Our aim is to provide a full service experience, from expert advice to seamless delivery, making sure our clients get the best products suited to their needs." This focus on service quality has built a strong reputation, as shown by the high ratings from customers.

Banksford's website showcases the detailed range of products, making it easy for customers to see all available options, including an extensive offering of trousers suitable for various work environments. The site is designed for a straightforward shopping experience, with clear product categories and descriptions, helping clients choose items that fit their business needs.

With their extensive catalog and dedication to customer service, Banksford maintains its status as a leading BANKSFORD catering clothing supplier. They offer products from reputable brands such as Premier Workwear, Dennys, and Chef Works, ensuring high-quality garments that meet industry demands.

The company's focus on customer satisfaction goes beyond product quality. Their website provides a contact number for inquiries, ensuring any questions or concerns are quickly and professionally handled, underlining their commitment to expert garment and branding advice.

Expanding their product line reinforces Banksford's role as a trusted BANKSFORD catering clothing supplier in the UK. By focusing on quality and customer service, including products like jackets for all seasons and the latest brands on offer, they keep a strong presence in the hospitality uniform market, committed to meeting and surpassing client expectations across various hospitality fields.
