

Carolina Marine Group Unveils Breathtaking Sunset Cruise Experience

August 27, 2025

August 27, 2025 -

Carolina Marine Group has expanded its offerings with the well-loved sunset cruise in Charleston, South Carolina, promising an unforgettable time on the water. This cruise is famous for its breathtaking views of Charleston Harbor as the sun sets. It is one of many diverse tours the company offers. Founded by Captain Dave Gugliotti, this private tour boat company has been operating since 2014, focusing on providing unique and personalized experiences for both visitors and locals.

The sunset cruise is a relaxing invitation to bask in the beauty of the day's end. As it travels across the historic and scenic Charleston Harbor, it's a perfect getaway for couples, families, and friends who want to enjoy some peace. The trip not only celebrates the area's natural beauty but also provides a chance to connect with Charleston's rich history. With Captain Gugliotti or another skilled captain guiding the experience, passengers get to hear about the historical landmarks that line the harbor.

Captain Dave Gugliotti shared his thoughts on this special cruise: "Watching the sunset over Charleston Harbor is a unique experience that truly captures what makes our city special. We are proud to offer our guests a chance to be part of this wonderful event."

Besides the sunset cruise, Carolina Marine Group in Charleston provides several other trips to suit different interests and events. These tours include dolphin-watching, weddings on the water, and corporate events, all customizable for a personal experience. The aim is to do more than just show off the sights; the tours also educate and entertain, with a crew that puts guest satisfaction first. For those looking to host bachelorette or bachelor parties on the water, their specialized private boat tours offer customization to ensure the group's needs and preferences are catered to. The company also offers unique experiences like the cigar and bourbon tour, which is perfect for enthusiasts seeking a novel pairing of luxury and relaxation.

The high standards at Carolina Marine Group are reflected in reviews online, where they boast a perfect 5.0 rating on Google Maps from 235 reviews. Guests often praise Captain Dave and his team for their expertise, friendliness, and the memorable time they provide. One review highlighted the exceptional service: "Our sunset cruise was a highlight of our trip. The view was amazing, and Captain Dave's knowledge and storytelling added depth to the experience."

Booking one of these remarkable experiences is straightforward. Interested people can The booking process is designed to be user-friendly, making it easy to explore Charleston's waters. For an engagement cruise or wedding in the Charleston harbor, potential clients have found this personal touch a beautiful start to their nuptials.

Captain Gugliotti expressed his gratitude, saying, "We appreciate our wonderful clients whose feedback and support have kept us as a top choice for tour experiences in Charleston. We look forward to welcoming new and returning guests to enjoy our sunset cruise and other tours."

Based at the Charleston City Marina, the company is in an ideal spot, making it easy to start any harbor tour, such as their educational port and shipyard tours focusing on Charleston's maritime history or an intercoastal waterway adventure. Their location is perfect for a range of activities, including sunrise tours that offer a different view of Charleston's beautiful waterways.

The commitment of Carolina Marine Group in Charleston SC to providing quality experiences is clear. Their dedication has earned them the Post and Courier Charleston Choice award for seven straight years, highlighting them as a leader in private tour services in the area.

The sunset cruise offers a quintessential Charleston experience, mixing natural beauty with historical insight in a relaxed atmosphere. With a strong reputation built on excellence and customer satisfaction, the company continues to redefine tours in South Carolina's scenic coastal town. Looking ahead, their focus remains on enhancing guest experiences and keeping Charleston's rich history alive through their remarkable offerings.

###

For more information about Carolina Marine Group, contact the company here:Carolina Marine GroupDave Gugliotti(843) 779-5711info@carolinamarinegroup.comCarolina Marine Group17 Lockwood DrCharleston, SC 29401

Carolina Marine Group

Discover Charleston?s waterways with Carolina Marine Group, top-rated private tour boat company and winner of the Post and Courier Charleston Choice Book your customized journey today and see why we?re one of Charleston?s favorites on the water.

Website: https://carolinamarinegroup.com/

Email: info@carolinamarinegroup.com

Phone: (843) 779-5711