

Mogy Law Tennessee Sounds Alarm on Rising Pedestrian Fatalities in Memphis

September 03, 2025

MEMPHIS, TN - September 03, 2025 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Mogy Law Firm is highlighting a troubling rise in pedestrian fatalities in the Memphis area. From 2019 to 2020, Shelby County experienced a 60% increase in these accidents. As experts in pedestrian accident cases, Mogy Law Firm emphasizes the urgent need for stronger safety measures and legal support for those most at risk on the roads.

The increase in pedestrian accidents in Memphis has been substantial, with many incidents happening at busy intersections. A lack of adequate traffic signals and drivers not paying attention are key factors. These trends call for immediate action to protect pedestrians and enhance city infrastructure. Mogy Law Firm, with its dedicated legal team, stands ready to help those impacted by such accidents. Their comprehensive legal services for personal injury cases, such as pedestrian accidents, aim to ensure clients receive the compensation they are entitled to for their injuries, as detailed on their website.

Eric Mogy, a leading attorney at the firm, voiced his concerns about the rising numbers, saying, "The increase in pedestrian fatalities is alarming and highlights a critical need for awareness and preventive measures. Our team is dedicated to advocating for the rights of pedestrians and ensuring they receive the justice and compensation they deserve."

Pedestrians in Memphis face various risks, including the challenge of proving driver negligence in accident cases. Tennessee's comparative fault laws add complexity to these cases, making the need for skilled legal guidance more critical. Mogy Law Firm provides the necessary support to help victims understand their rights and explore their legal options during these difficult times.

Recognizing these challenges, Mogy Law Firm offers a wide range of services to assist pedestrian accident victims. They stress the importance of seeking legal advice quickly after an incident to gather evidence and documentation needed for a case. This preparation helps victims pursue fair financial compensation and hold those at fault accountable.

Mogy stated, "Navigating the aftermath of a pedestrian accident can be overwhelming. Our goal is to offer support and legal expertise to victims, ensuring they have a clear understanding of their rights and the steps needed to seek justice."

As a Memphis pedestrian accident lawyer, the firm's role is vital in addressing these alarming statistics. Mogy Law Firm offers services to all affected individuals, including those who are non-native English speakers, by providing consultations in both English and Spanish. This commitment ensures everyone understands their legal proceedings. Further information about their commitment to serving clients from all walks of life, including non-native English speakers, can be found on the firm's website.

Offering a free initial consultation, Mogy Law Firm operates on a contingency fee basis. This means clients only pay if the firm secures a positive result for them. Such an approach makes legal help available to more people, regardless of their financial situation, and gives individuals the resources they need.

Mogy Law Firm continues to advocate for pedestrian safety by engaging in local projects designed to reduce accidents and fatalities. Their efforts highlight the firm's commitment to serving the Memphis area and creating a safer community. As the city contends with these rising numbers, Mogy Law Firm remains dedicated to protecting and supporting their clients' rights.

By focusing on raising awareness and employing effective legal strategies, the firm actively contributes to reducing pedestrian accidents and fatalities. As both legal advocates and representatives, Mogy Law Firm works toward policy changes that improve safety for all road users.
