John Francis Beauty, a salon owned by celebrity hair stylist John Francis in West Hollywood, CA, is proud to announce the launch of their brand new blog. This blog covers hair tips, trends, celebrity style and more.

Francis has become one of the most sought-after celebrity hair stylists in the world, working with the likes of Emily Blunt, Penelope Cruz, Ellen Degeneres and Gerard Butler, just to name a few.

"I come from humble beginnings, and I will always be true to my roots," Francis says. "My salon isn't for everyone, but advice is always free. We see first-hand what's happening with the Hollywood elite. We not only work with them, but we shape their style. We're happy to share some of what we're seeing with the public."

Hair done by the John Francis Beauty salon has appeared on numerous magazines, red carpets and events. Francis regularly styles models and celebrities for photo shoots. Even though he has become one of the most sought-after stylists in Los Angeles, Francis still finds time to update his new blog regularly.

"We try to share style tips and trends that people might find useful," says Francis. "Even if you're not in Los Angeles, you can still be part of the lifestyle and look good wherever you are."

The John Francis Beauty Blog and social media accounts have already attracted a wealth of followers. Both are opportunities for Francis to share some of his knowledge and impart a few hairstyle tips to the general public. At the same time, it is an opportunity for other people to ask him questions directly and to comment on his ideas, which is something that thousands of people have already done.

Francis welcomes input and questions via social media. Fans can find out where to follow John by visiting his website.
