August 26, 2025 -
Frontier Anglers Tennessee is announcing a new experience for drift boat fly fishing fans. Residents and visitors in Maryville, along with nearby spots like River Valley Dr, River Bend Elementary School, and Garden View Care Center, can now enjoy fly fishing, guided by seasoned experts, across the rich waters of East Tennessee. More details about these offerings can be found on the company's website at Frontier Anglers TN.

The Holston River, which starts in Virginia and travels southwest for 274 miles before joining the French Broad River to form the Tennessee River, sets the scene for Frontier Anglers TN's standout trips. Covering a 52-mile stretch from Cherokee Dam to the river's meeting point, this area is a fishing paradise filled with Rainbow Trout, Brown Trout, and the lively Smallmouth Bass. Depending on the season, fly fishing guides use drift boats or rafts to navigate its expanse, providing the best strategies for catching prized fish.

"Frontier Anglers Tennessee is thrilled to bring these unique opportunities to the community," says a company representative. "Our drift boat excursions are designed not just to offer fishing, but to provide a deeper connection with the striking landscapes and rich aquatic life of Tennessee. It's an adventure that certainly leaves a lasting impression."

Visitors can dive into the wide range of options at Frontier Anglers TN. The Tennessee fly fishing guides offer trips that take advantage of the different ecosystems of East Tennessee?from expansive jet boat trips on large rivers to peaceful wade trips in the Great Smoky Mountains National Park. Each trip is tailored to the angler's skill level and interests, ensuring both novices and seasoned fishermen have rewarding experiences.

Moreover, the company is skilled at handling various water levels and conditions to keep the fishing adventure top-notch year-round. Spring is peak season for trout, providing plenty of chances to catch Rainbow and Brown trout. As summer rolls in, Smallmouth Bass fishing hits its stride, offering a whole new kind of excitement.

The guides at Frontier Anglers Tennessee are licensed USCG captains, backed by certificates and thorough training necessary to safely maneuver through diverse terrains and river conditions. Besides their technical know-how, the guides have deep local knowledge of the rivers, ready to share insights and tips to boost any fishing trip.

"Being at the helm of these trips is incredibly rewarding," shared another Frontier Anglers Tennessee representative. "Every trip is a new adventure, and there's nothing like the joy on someone's face when they land that perfect catch. It's what makes each day on these rivers special."

Frontier Anglers TN emphasizes learning and staying informed. Their regular fishing reports help guests know the latest conditions and trends, making sure everyone is ready for their fishing adventure with up-to-date info on active species and the best ways to catch them. Booking is easy through the company's website so guests can effortlessly book their fishing experience.

Whether they choose the excitement of floating through tailwaters or the peace of a secluded wade trip, each adventure with Frontier Anglers TN promises an enriching experience set in one of the southeastern United States' most scenic locations. This detailed service can be explored further on their website, which also provides valuable fishing reports that keep clients informed about the latest fishing conditions.

These options make Frontier Anglers Tennessee a key player in the fly-fishing community, catering to both experienced anglers and newcomers. As they continue developing their services, the company stays committed to maintaining the natural beauty of the area, encouraging respect for the environment among guests while promoting the enjoyable practice of fly fishing.

With the vast opportunities presented by Frontier Anglers TN, folks in Maryville and beyond are invited to discover or relive the joy of Tennessee fly fishing guides, now enriched with exciting drift boat fly fishing tours. This new offering not only strengthens ties to Tennessee's lovely waterways but also highlights the company's commitment to providing memorable and fulfilling outdoor adventures.
