CWX Patio Covers, a business in Surrey, BC, Canada, is proud to announce that they are expanding their business. While having previously only covered the Surrey area, they now accept clients in all the lower mainland areas of Vancouver. These include Delta, Richmond, North Vancouver, and Burnaby. More details about their products and the areas that they serve are available at the company's website.

Stephen Chen from CWX Patio Covers says: "We proudly offer unbeatable prices on patio covers and railing system components, and supply and installation services. We provide complete customized design, fabrication and installation for your sundeck vinyl membrane, railing, patio covers and sunrooms for commercial or residential properties. All our materials are guaranteed for 10 years and all installation labour services are guaranteed for 3 years from the day of completion. We're happy to say that all these services are now available across the Vancouver area."

The company's patio covers come in a range of different styles and the company has already worked on a huge variety of projects. This has earned them the reputation of being the best business of its kind in the Surrey area. They intend to now build this same reputation across Vancouver as well.

Those who have worked with the company have been full of praise about the results. "I had a big slop cover installed," says one happy customer. "I always believed that it was an impossible job to do, but I contacted CWX on the recommendation of a friend to see if they could prove me wrong. And prove me wrong they did. My property looks absolutely amazing now. I found them on a recommendation, and I now recommend them to everybody."

Besides patio covers, the company also offers railings and fence services. They have worked across a range of different properties, from old town houses to detached farms, collaborating with their clients to create a thing of beauty that is befitting of the character of the property as well. Those in the Vancouver area have shown tremendous interest in CWX Patio Covers and it looks like the business will continue to boom.
