Ross Moore Law Expands: Rideshare Accident Lawyer More Accessible

September 03, 2025

ATLANTA, GA - September 03, 2025 -
Ross Moore Law is excited to announce the opening of its new office in Marietta, Georgia. This expansion strengthens the firm's ability to serve clients across the region. Known for its expertise in handling personal injury cases, particularly motor vehicle accidents like car and trucking incidents, the firm reinforces its commitment to offering legal services. With this new location, they aim to provide more accessible support to the community, ensuring affected individuals can easily reach experienced legal assistance.

Ross Moore Law has carved out a reputation as a leading provider of personal injury services in Georgia. The firm is dedicated to assisting victims of incidents ranging from car accidents to more nuanced cases like traumatic brain injuries and medical malpractice. With the addition of the Marietta office, residents facing the aftermath of accidents, elder abuse, or medical mistakes have easier access to professional legal help. The firm continues to uphold its high standards, assuring clients of complete legal guidance from start to finish.

Specializing as a Ross Moore rideshare accident attorney, the firm addresses the growing complexity of insurance involved in such cases. As more people use rideshares in the Atlanta metro area, accidents become more frequent and complicated due to insurance protocols. These incidents might involve different policies depending on whether the driver is on a job or waiting for passengers. Clients seeking compensation need to understand these details.

"Opening our new Marietta office allows us to assist those needing personal injury services closer to where they live," said Ross Moore Law. "We are committed to giving our clients the expert help they deserve, especially with the challenges posed by rideshare accidents."

Insurance complexities in rideshare accidents present unique legal challenges. Unlike standard car crashes, these incidents often involve multiple insurers with overlapping responsibilities based on the ride phase. Tackling these issues alone can be overwhelming, making a knowledgeable lawyer's support crucial. Ross Moore Law's attorneys specialize in these complex cases, working hard to obtain compensation for medical bills, lost income, and other damages.

Apart from rideshare accident cases, the new office will handle serious injury claims like wrongful deaths. Ross Moore Law also provides expert legal assistance in civil litigation and personal injury cases such as premises liability, dog bites, and elder abuse. The firm is prepared to manage various accident-related issues, including pedestrian and motorcycle accidents, product liabilities, and traumatic brain injuries. Their skilled team provides tailored legal help for each case, ensuring victims receive the compensation and peace needed.

As rideshare accidents rise, common injuries like whiplash, broken bones, and head injuries become frequent. Such injuries can have long-lasting effects on victims, making it important for them to get fair compensation. Ross Moore Law aims to make the claims process easy, advocating firmly for clients to meet their needs.

Ross Moore Law stands as a reliable partner for those in need, committed to offering resourceful and high-quality legal services. With significant expertise in handling cases involving serious injuries and accidents, the firm strives to maintain its reputation for excellence, even as personal injury law in Georgia changes.

"We focus on understanding our clients' specific needs and navigating the complex legal landscapes they face," Ross Moore Law added. "Our new office in Marietta shows our dedication, allowing us to keep providing excellent legal support in a quickly changing environment."

By moving into Marietta, Ross Moore Law strengthens its commitment to serving the Marietta area with skilled legal services. Covering 16 practice areas, the firm supports numerous accident victims, guiding them through the legal process. With its significant expertise in rideshare accidents, Ross Moore Law stands as a leading authority in emerging legal fields, ensuring consumer protection amid complex insurance issues.
