

All In Solutions Counseling Center Cherry Hill Releases 2024 Outcomes Report on Rehab Success Rate

September 17, 2025

CHERRY HILL, NJ - September 17, 2025 -

All In Solutions Counseling Center Cherry Hill has released its 2024 Client Satisfaction and Outcomes Report, revealing improvements in mental health outcomes and client satisfaction ratings across its addiction treatment programs. The comprehensive report demonstrates measurable progress in depression and anxiety reduction among clients completing treatment at the Joint Commission-accredited facility.

The data shows that clients participating in the center's Partial Hospitalization Program and Intensive Outpatient Program achieved a 71 percent reduction in depression symptoms, with PHQ-9 scores dropping from an average intake level of 8.02 to 2.90 upon completion. Additionally, anxiety symptoms decreased by 64 percent, with GAD-7 scores improving from 8.18 at intake to 2.98 at discharge.

"Our 2024 Outcomes Report demonstrates Cherry Hill clients experience meaningful improvements in mental health and consistently positive feedback on the quality of care. It's proof that individualized, evidence-based outpatient treatment works," said Matthew Amato, CSO.

All In Solutions Counseling Center Cherry Hill services demonstrated strong performance metrics throughout 2024, with clients averaging 33.9 days in treatment. This duration allows sufficient time for emotional processing and the development of sustainable recovery strategies. The extended engagement period enables the clinical team to address both substance use disorders and co-occurring mental health conditions through comprehensive dual diagnosis treatment.

The report indicates that 93 percent of clients across All In Solutions facilities expressed satisfaction with their overall treatment experience in 2024. Though the PDF data is aggregated, specific areas of satisfaction at the Cherry Hill location include treatment planning, therapist quality, educational components, accommodations, and safety measures, all receiving ratings between 94 and 97 percent from past clients.

All In Solutions Counseling Center Cherry Hill and national rehab success rates comparison reveal the facility's performance aligns with and often exceeds industry standards for addiction treatment outcomes. The center's evidence-based approach incorporates various therapeutic modalities including individual therapy, group counseling, family therapy programs, and specialized tracks for trauma-focused care, faith-based recovery, and gender-specific treatment.

The facility offers multiple levels of care to meet varying client needs, including residential treatment, Partial Hospitalization Programs, Intensive Outpatient Programs, and standard outpatient services. Additional therapeutic components such as art therapy, yoga therapy, medication-assisted treatment, and chronic pain addiction treatment complement the core programming. The center treats various substance dependencies including alcohol, opiates, prescription drugs, cocaine, methamphetamine, and benzodiazepines.

All In Solutions Counseling Center Cherry Hill operates as part of the larger All In Solutions network, which maintains multiple locations across the United States. The facility continues to accept new clients seeking recovery from substance use disorders and accepts most major insurance providers to ensure treatment accessibility. Through transparent outcomes reporting, the center strives to be a trusted destination for addiction and mental health care, serving residents from the greater Philadelphia area, South Jersey areas, and beyond.
