

S25: Bilingual and Intergenerational Conference Explores Migration, Faith, and Resilience ? October 9?11 at Life Pacific University in San Dimas, CA

September 10, 2025

VALENCIA, CA - September 10, 2025 -

Los Angeles, California ? Migration is far more than physical relocation. It is a profound narrative of identity, resilience, and faith that has defined humanity for centuries. From Genesis to Revelation, the Bible reveals human mobility as an essential part of God?s plan for His people. Today, in a world marked by displacement, trauma, and polarization, the Church is once again called to walk alongside communities in motion, proclaiming hope and offering spiritual guidance.

With this mission, the S25 Conference will convene pastors, theologians, community leaders, and scholars from across the United States and Latin America for three days of deep reflection, learning, and worship. Hosted at Life Pacific University in San Dimas, California, from Thursday, October 9 through Saturday, October 11, 2025, the event seeks to address some of the most pressing questions facing the Church today:

How do we honor the identity of migrants in our preaching and ministry?

How do we accompany trauma with theological and pastoral sensitivity?

How can the Church embody justice, compassion, and grace in contexts shaped by migration?

A Program Designed for Impact

S25 is structured as a bilingual and intergenerational gathering, ensuring accessibility and richness for diverse communities. With over ten hours of formation, dialogue, and worship across three days, participants will gain both practical tools and spiritual depth.

Highlights of the program include:

Plenary Sessions: Renowned experts in homiletics, migration studies, pastoral theology, and trauma care will lead conversations on how to build faith-filled responses to migration challenges.

Thematic Workshops: Interactive sessions will equip attendees with hands-on strategies to address the pastoral and community realities of displacement.

ECHOTalk Dinners: These community meals will foster open dialogue, reflection, and networking in an atmosphere of hospitality and shared vision.

Exhibitions: Organizations, ministries, and publishers will showcase resources designed to serve churches and communities in the areas of faith, advocacy, and formation.

Worship & Care Spaces: Dedicated times of worship and pastoral accompaniment will allow participants to reflect spiritually and experience renewal.
