

Lee & James Real Estate Photography Launches Fall Promotion: Free Professional Photos for New Clients from September Through Halloween

September 12, 2025

PORTLAND, OR - September 12, 2025 -
As fall approaches and neighborhoods across the Portland metro area fill with back-to-school energy and Halloween spirit, Lee & James Real Estate Photography is giving local realtors an opportunity to elevate their listings with a timely seasonal promotion. From the beginning of September through the end of October, new clients can claim a free professional photo package that includes 32 high-quality HDR images?at no cost.

The fall season is one of the busiest times in real estate, as buyers look to secure homes before the holidays and the colder months. For agents, professionally shot photos can make all the difference in capturing serious interest quickly. With this promotion, Lee & James aims to provide an affordable way for new clients to present listings in their best light and gain a competitive edge in a crowded market.

?Autumn is a crucial selling season, and it?s also a time when homes need to stand out more than ever,? said a spokesperson for Lee & James. ?By running this special from September through Halloween, we?re giving agents a chance to market properties with polished images during two of the busiest months of the year.?

Serving the greater Portland metro and Vancouver area, the company is known for its consistency, professionalism, and same-day turnaround. New clients who take advantage of the fall promotion will receive 32 professionally edited HDR photos?perfect for MLS listings, print marketing, and social media campaigns. With same-day delivery, agents can move from photo shoot to live listing in under 24 hours, a benefit that can prove critical during this fast-moving season.

The booking process is simple: new clients can schedule by phone, email, or through the company?s website, with no promo code required. With straightforward communication, efficient digital delivery, and no hidden fees, Lee & James has created a system built around speed and convenience for busy professionals.

Beyond the promotional offering, the company continues to emphasize its role as a trusted partner for local realtors. Many agents have expressed frustration with amateur photographers who cannot meet deadlines or deliver consistent quality. Lee & James positions itself as the solution, combining professional expertise with reliable service to ensure each listing makes a strong impression.

?This seasonal special is about more than just offering free photos,? added the spokesperson. ?It?s about giving new clients a chance to experience what makes our process different?fast turnaround, professional quality, and a simple, stress-free experience that helps homes sell faster.?

With its home base at 830 NE Holladay St in Portland, Lee & James Real Estate Photography continues to expand its reputation as one of the most reliable photography services in the region. From Southeast Portland to Vancouver, the company serves a wide range of neighborhoods, ensuring realtors across the metro area have access to professional-grade listing photos that drive results.

The Halloween season brings a surge of community activity across Portland and Vancouver, with families eager to settle before the holidays. By showcasing homes with clean, striking images delivered the same day, Lee & James helps agents capture attention at precisely the right moment?when serious buyers are looking to make their next move. The fall promotion will run from September 1 through October 31 and is available exclusively to new clients. Appointments are subject to availability, and the company encourages early booking to secure preferred time slots during this high-demand season.
