Family-Owned Home Renovation Leader Serving Westchester, Putnam, Dutchess, and Orange Counties
Highlights Kitchen and Bath Remodeling Trends

Westchester, N.Y. ? Bulldog Construction, a local leader in custom kitchens and baths, announced today the launch of its new website. The new website features the company?s extensive portfolio of kitchen remodeling, bathroom construction, bathroom remodeling and other home renovation projects.

Bulldog Construction?s team of expert contractors has served Westchester, Putnam and Orange Counties for four generations. The family-owned company has earned a reputation across the region for its craftsmanship, creativity and innovative implementation of modern home design concepts.

?We?re thrilled to reveal our new website to both our existing clients and potential new clients,? said James Count, owner of Bulldog Construction. ?Our new website gives us an opportunity to showcase custom kitchens and baths and other projects that we?ve completed for homeowners with great pride. It also gives us an opportunity to educate homeowners about the home renovation process as well as spark their imaginations and give them ideas and advice on how they can transform their own living spaces.?

In addition to custom kitchens and baths, Bulldog Construction specializes in contracting, remodeling and renovation, decks, windows and doors. The company is committed to using high-quality materials, courteous and professional service, quick turnarounds, and a safety first approach. The company continues to earn five-star reviews based on the quality of its work, the expertise of its staff and commitment to ensuring that its clients' expectations are not only met, but exceeded.

"Bulldog renovated both bathrooms and did new hardwood flooring throughout my townhome," said Florence Snarr, a recent Bulldog Construction client. "This included everything from fixtures to paint and tile and grout; all the nuts and bolts. They were extremely thorough, efficient and offered many excellent cost-saving measures along the way. James and his team even cleaned up never leaving behind a mess for me. I fully recommend them and plan on having them back for the next phase!"

Bulldog Construction is fully licensed and insured in the State of New York.
