San Diego, CA - The Maritime Alliance (TMA) announces the addition of Jordon Cousino to its Board of Directors.

"Cardinal Point Captains is a perfect example of the breadth and depth of San Diego's Blue Economy. They are based in San Diego County and provide maritime services around the world," said Greg Murphy, TMA Executive Director. "We welcome Jordan as a member of the Board and look forward working with him as we continue to develop a robust regional BlueTech business ecosystem that promotes sustainable, science-based ocean and water industries."

Jordan, CEO of Cardinal Point Captains, Inc. (CPC) said, "Participating in The Maritime Alliance is important to promote a common Blue Voice for our region and global collaboration."

Cardinal Point Captains, Inc. is a leader in providing technical support services for Government and Research Organizations globally. By providing highly-trained and seasoned personnel to support a wide range of missions and operations, CPC was named to the 2013 Inc. 500 List of Fastest Growing Companies. Additionally, CPC is the exclusive global distributor for Diver6, the world's only diver tracking and command system that provides real-time navigation instructions to divers and allows them to communicate with a diver supervisor acoustically.
