Suite Bridal in Atlanta Announces Expanded Designer Collection

October 14, 2025

ATLANTA, GA - October 14, 2025 -
Suite Bridal, a wedding dress boutique in Atlanta, Georgia, has expanded its designer collection to include gowns from Jesus Peiro, Sophie et Voilà, Stella York, Justin Alexander, and Moonlight, with additional designers now available in-store at its Buckhead location.

The boutique's expanded collection addresses the growing demand for diverse bridal fashion options in the Atlanta metropolitan area. The addition of these designer lines increases the shop's inventory to encompass various style preferences and size ranges, including extended sizing options.

The shop's service area encompasses Atlanta, Buckhead, Midtown, Decatur, Sandy Springs, and Marietta. According to data from the boutique's Facebook page, 295 client reviews have been submitted, reflecting the shop's presence in the local bridal market. The boutique has established itself as a destination for brides seeking designer gowns in the greater Atlanta area. Brides interested in viewing the collections can follow Suite Bridal on facebook for updates on new arrivals and trunk shows.

"We have expanded our designer partnerships to provide Atlanta brides with access to international bridal collections," said Ricardo Barraza, spokesperson for Suite Bridal. "The addition of Jesus Peiro's Spanish designs and Sophie et Voilà's contemporary styles represents our response to evolving bridal fashion preferences in the Southeast market."

The boutique operates from its 2285 Peachtree Road location and offers appointments for dress selection, with services extending through the alteration process. The in-house modification shop provides alteration services that span three appointments, with basic alterations beginning at $750. This service structure allows for two one-hour fitting sessions followed by a final 30-minute appointment.

Suite Bridal maintains an off-the-rack section featuring sample gowns for brides requiring shorter delivery timelines. The boutique's team includes stylists Brooke, Taylor, Nikki, Ambe, Alexis, and Azmeena, who conduct private appointment sessions for dress selection. The shop's appointment system accommodates various scheduling needs, with extended hours available on select days throughout the week.

Beyond wedding gowns, the boutique stocks accessories, veils, and flower girl dresses. The shop's inventory includes items from various price points to accommodate different wedding budgets. Clients can see real brides on the Suite Bridal instagram, where the shop documents gowns from their designer collections worn at actual weddings.

The expansion of designer offerings comes as the Atlanta bridal market continues to evolve, with brides seeking access to international designers alongside traditional American labels. The boutique's location on Peachtree Road provides accessibility for clients throughout the metropolitan area. The shop's position in Buckhead places it within reach of brides from surrounding communities.

Suite Bridal specializes in wedding dress sales and alterations, operating Monday through Saturday with extended hours on select days. The company provides both in-store shopping and pickup services, with gown orders typically requiring booking due to designer production timelines. The boutique's services include personalized styling sessions designed to assist brides in finding gowns that match their wedding vision. Those interested in visiting the boutique can book with Suite Bridal for a private consultation.
