Thailand Privilege Extends Family Card Promotion Deadline to December 2025

October 13, 2025

BANGKOK, Thailand - October 13, 2025 -
Thailand Privilege has extended its Family Add-On Promotion through December 31, 2025, allowing primary members to add family members at 500,000 THB per person. The extension follows increased applications from international families seeking long-term residency options in Thailand through the government program.

The promotional rate represents a reduction from standard add-on fees across all membership tiers. Standard pricing for adding family members to Platinum memberships is 1,000,000 THB, Diamond memberships is 1,500,000 THB, and Reserve memberships is 2,000,000 THB. The promotion is valid for applications submitted between July 1, 2025, and December 31, 2025

"The extension provides families additional time to complete documentation requirements and background checks necessary for the application process," said Rex Baay, Senior Consultant at Siam Legal, an authorized General Sales and Services Agent for Thailand Privilege. "The reduced rate makes it feasible for families to secure residency together under a single membership structure."

Families applying for the promotion must submit comprehensive documentation, including passport copies, photographs, and background check clearances. Processing typically requires 30 to 45 days from submission. Authorized General Sales and Services Agents provide assistance with document collection, verification, and coordination with Thai authorities at no additional charge. Information about program requirements and membership tiers is available at https://siamlegal.thailandprivilege.com/thailand-privilege-overview/.

The Thailand Privilege program, established and operated by Thailand Privilege Card Co., Ltd., a subsidiary of the Tourism Authority of Thailand, offers multiple-entry visas valid for 10, 15, or 20 years depending on membership level. Members receive expedited immigration processing at airports, assistance with 90-day reporting requirements, and support for opening Thai bank accounts. The program also includes spa treatments, annual health checkups, and discounts at participating establishments.

The extension addresses increased demand from international families relocating to Southeast Asia. Thailand reported a 23 percent increase in long-term visa applications in 2024, according to immigration statistics. The Thailand Privilege program processed over 3,000 new memberships in the first quarter of 2024 alone.

Applicants can begin the application process through authorized agents or directly with Thailand Privilege Card Co., Ltd. Documentation requirements include valid passports with at least one year remaining validity, recent photographs meeting Thai visa specifications, and clean criminal background checks from countries of residence. Additional information about the application process can be found at https://siamlegal.thailandprivilege.com/.

The December 31, 2025 deadline applies to all membership tiers, including Bronze, Gold, Platinum, Diamond, and Reserve levels. Given documentation and processing timeframes, Thailand Privilege recommends initiating applications at least 60 days before the deadline.

Thailand Privilege Card Co., Ltd. operates under the Tourism Authority of Thailand, offering long-term residence programs to qualified international applicants since 2003. The program currently serves members from over 50 countries worldwide.
