

FLOTT & Co. PC
ATTORNEYS

Arlington Attorney Announces International Taxation Services

March 01, 2016

March 01, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Flott & Co. PC in Arlington, Virginia, has announced the availability of offshore voluntary disclosure program services. The international tax attorney focuses on international taxation and offers services related to international transactions, citizenship, and various other topics. Stephen P. Flott, attorney with the company, states, "We have substantial experience assisting clients with offshore voluntary disclosure programs."

The international tax attorney assists individuals and businesses with a range of services from cross border commercial issues to compliance with the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act or FATCA. Founded in 1990, the firm helps businesses and individuals to achieve personal, organizational and corporate goals by finding cost effective and practical solutions to meet their unique needs.

The firm provides FBAR or Foreign Bank Account Report compliance as well. Flott states, "We provide advice to United States citizens who have a foreign source of income, as well as non-citizens who have a United States source of income." In addition, the firm assists citizens of the United States who live abroad on matters such as tax and estate planning.

The firm consists of attorneys with experience in a number of international tax and business topics, as well as estate planning, expatriation matters, and various tax controversies, among others. The new range of services includes foreign and domestic clients who operate or engage in business overseas, and assisting them in finding opportunities as they arise for a number of needs. Charges for services are based on each individual case.

The firm also provides general estate planning advice, including wills, trusts, and gift planning to assist clients in preparing for the future. Flott states that those interested in learning more about estate planning can contact the firm to schedule an initial consultation.

The firm offers more than 25 years of experience in FBAR, international taxation services, and provides businesses and individuals with an initial consultation to discuss their specific needs and how those needs can best be addressed. The attorneys suggest that anyone who would like to schedule a consultation should contact them as soon as possible to set up an initial appointment. Fees and other policies are discussed during the consultation. Those interested in learning more can visit the company on their website.

###

For more information about Flott & Co. PC, contact the company here: Flott & Co. PC Stephen P. Flott 703-525-5110 sflott@flottco.com 2200 Wilson Boulevard, Suite 320 Arlington, VA 22201

Flott & Co. PC

Flott & Co. PC is a law firm with expertise in business, international commerce and tax, and United States citizenship issues.

Website: <http://www.flottco.com/>

Email: sflott@flottco.com

Phone: 703-525-5110

Powered by PressAdvantage.com