

Drake's 7 Dees Landscaping and Garden Center Highlights Landscape Design Services

October 07, 2025

Portland, Oregon - October 07, 2025 -
Drake's 7 Dees Landscaping and Garden Center, a Portland-based landscape company with over 60 years of experience, highlights its comprehensive landscape design services as homeowners prepare for landscaping projects. The family-run business, which maintains a 4.8-star rating based on 395 customer reviews, offers full-service design and build capabilities that streamline outdoor transformation projects for residential properties throughout the Portland area.

The company's landscape design approach combines artistic creativity with practical budget considerations, providing clients with a single point of contact for their entire project. Drake's 7 Dees employs structural architects on staff, enabling them to handle complex projects that include garden rooms, covered outdoor structures, and various outbuildings without requiring clients to coordinate with separate contractors.

"Our design-first mentality means every project begins with planning that considers both the aesthetic vision and the practical realities of implementation," said Drake Snodgrass, President of Drake's 7 Dees. "Having provided Drake's 7 Dees landscape design services for six decades, we understand how to create outdoor spaces that enhance both property value and quality of life for Portland homeowners."

The company's design and build model eliminates the traditional challenges of coordinating between multiple contractors and subcontractors. This integrated approach allows for seamless project execution from initial concept through final installation, including specialized features such as outdoor kitchens, water features, fire pits, pergolas, and sustainable garden installations.

The company offers a free design guide developed from their extensive experience, helping potential clients understand the possibilities for their outdoor spaces and the design process itself.

Beyond design services, the company provides comprehensive landscape solutions, including irrigation system design and installation, outdoor lighting design, and ongoing maintenance services. They also offer a lifetime plant warranty, offering customers long-term protection for their landscape investments.

"We approach each property as a unique canvas that requires thoughtful consideration of the existing architecture, the natural environment, and the client's lifestyle," added Snodgrass. "Our team includes specialists in various aspects of landscape construction, from artisan pruning to athletic court installation, helping us execute any design vision with professionalism."

Drake's 7 Dees operates from its location at 5645 SW Scholls Ferry Road in Portland, where it also maintains a garden center offering plants, landscaping supplies, and expert advice to both professional contractors and homeowners.

Drake's 7 Dees Landscaping and Garden Center continues to serve Portland area residents with design services that range from simple garden refreshes to complete outdoor living space transformations. The company's portfolio includes residential projects featuring decks, patios, driveways, retaining walls, ponds, pools, and specialized gardens designed to thrive in the Pacific Northwest climate.
