

AISOL CH LLC Announces Outpatient Program Completion Rates Exceed National Standards

November 03, 2025

CHERRY HILL, NJ - November 03, 2025 -
All In Solutions Counseling Center Cherry Hill, has released data showing that 79 percent of clients enrolled in its outpatient addiction treatment programs completed their treatment plans in 2024, significantly exceeding national averages for outpatient substance abuse care.

The achievement highlights the effectiveness of structured outpatient treatment at a time when many individuals struggling with addiction must balance recovery with work, family, and educational responsibilities. National statistics indicate that outpatient addiction treatment programs typically see completion rates between 30 and 50 percent, making the results at All In Solutions Counseling Center Cherry Hill particularly noteworthy.

The center attributes its success to a combination of individualized scheduling, evidence-based therapeutic approaches, and strong peer accountability systems that help clients maintain their recovery commitment while managing daily responsibilities. The facility offers both Intensive Outpatient Programs (IOP) and Partial Hospitalization Programs (PHP), allowing clients to receive comprehensive care without requiring residential treatment.

"Our clients balance recovery with work, school, and family. Their commitment?and our support systems?make this level of completion possible," said Dana Lasond CrayCRAY, Lead Therapist, LPC.

Completion rates at All In Solutions Counseling Center Cherry Hill reflect the center's comprehensive approach to addiction treatment, which includes medication-assisted treatment, dual diagnosis support, trauma-focused therapy, and family involvement programs. The facility's Joint Commission accreditation underscores its commitment to maintaining high standards of care across all treatment modalities.

The center's multidisciplinary treatment team includes licensed therapists, medical professionals, and peer support specialists who work collaboratively to address each client's unique needs. Treatment plans incorporate individual therapy, group counseling, family therapy sessions, and specialized programs for trauma, chronic pain management, and co-occurring mental health conditions.

Data from the 2024 outcomes report demonstrates that clients who engage with the full spectrum of services offered show the highest rates of program completion and sustained recovery. The center's alumni program provides ongoing support to graduates, helping maintain the connections and accountability that contribute to long-term success.

The outpatient programs at All In Solutions Counseling Center Cherry Hill in South Jersey serve clients from throughout the region, including those from nearby Philadelphia and Trenton areas. The flexibility of outpatient treatment allows individuals to receive intensive therapeutic support while maintaining employment, continuing education, or fulfilling family obligations that might otherwise prevent them from seeking help.

All In Solutions as a whole organization operates addiction treatment facilities across multiple states, including Florida, New Jersey, and California. The organization was founded by individuals with firsthand experience in addiction recovery, bringing a unique perspective to treatment approaches and program development. The Cherry Hill location has provided addiction treatment services to the South Jersey community, establishing itself as a trusted resource for individuals and families affected by substance use disorders.
